San Anselmo Housewife Sets Her Cap For Post On Council

A San Anselmo housewife, teacher and writer announced today she will be running against Mayor Carleton Little of San Anselmo at the city election next spring.

Mrs. Bernece Cresap of 99 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, said she decided to run because she is disturbed over Mayor Little's "rude treatment and condescending attitude" toward citizens and taxpayers.

In a letter announcing her candidacy, Mrs. Cresap wrote in part as follows:

"I am in complete agreement with Hans Fischel's statement that San Anselmo's Mayor Carleton Little is 'condescending' in his attitude toward taxpayers." (Fischel is a San Anselmo accountant who sat in during the council budget sessions.)

BERNECE CRESAP
Seeks to oust mayor

Mrs. Cresap contends that she and Fischel were told they could not speak until after the budget sessions were over. After sitting through three nights of budget discussions, Mrs. Cresap said she was finally allowed to make comments. "I spoke about two sentences before I was cut off by Mayor Little's caustic observation that he too was interested in public welfare.

Fischel was also cut short by the mayor, she pointed out.

"Councilman Rouse was so incensed at the rude treatment offered to us that he gave Mayor Little a sound verbal trouncing. To this the mayor replied, 'I stand reprimanded'," Mrs. Cresap wrote.

"Reprimands are not enough. I am announcing myself as a candidate opposing Mayor Little at the next election."

Mrs. Cresap's husband, John K. Cresap, is a printer in San Rafael.

Mrs. Cresap has been a professional writer for more than 20 years. She taught at Menlo-Atherton High School and since last September, she has been teaching creative writing in adult education at Drake High School.

She has a married daughter who lives near Kansas City, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Cresap said she would not now be a candidate "except for Mayor Little's somewhat high-handed recent behavior."

"My only concern is public welfare. I have no personal ax to grind, and there is no salary paid to council members. If taxpayers want someone interested in making changes if they seem necessary, they can vote for me. If the people are satisfied with Mayor Little's regime, I'll take a graceful defeat . . ."

Laos Truce Team Needs Make Gain

East, West Close To A Compromise Over Equipment

GENEVA (UPI) — East and West moved toward compromise today on sending some equipment to the International Control Commission (ICC) for policing the shaky cease-fire in Laos.

British and Soviet co-chairmen of the 14-nation Laos peace conference met with representatives of the three-member ICC on the Western demand that the commission be given the necessary tools for truce supervision.

A British delegation spokesman said afterward the two-hour meeting found "sufficient common ground." But no final agreement was worked out on how many helicopters, light aircraft and ground transport vehicles would be supplied.

ACCORD ON MESSAGE

The spokesman said "the conference agreed that the British delegation would produce a draft message to the ICC which would be the subject of further discussions here."

It was understood that the message would spell out the decisions reached here with the Soviet Union on the disputed truce-policing equipment.

The two co-chairmen, Britain's Malcolm MacDonald and Russia's Georgi Pushkin, will meet again probably tomorrow, and further meetings with the Canada-India-Poland ICC representatives might be necessary before agreement is reached.

DETAILS LACKING

A spokesman described today's meeting as "reasonably satisfactory."

Specific details on the meeting were lacking, but authoritative sources indicated the Russians were in a "reasonably cooperative mood."

Thus far, the Soviets, backed by their allies, have firmly opposed the dispatch of equipment and fresh instructions to the truce supervisory body headquarters in Vientiane.

Meanwhile, the 14-nation conference cancelled its plenary session this afternoon because of lack of speakers.

Slayer Goes To Death

Twenty-five-year-old Ronald Rittger walked calmly to his death at San Quentin's gas chamber this morning.

The death pellets were dropped at 10:03. The young killer who spent 15 years of his short life in prison, was pronounced dead at 10:10 a.m.

Rittger was resigned to the fate he asked for in February, 1956, when he urged a judge to send him to the gas chamber after he assaulted another inmate. "I've done it three times already," Rittger said, "and I'll do it again."

He did and was sentenced to the gas chamber after knifing to death another inmate, Bobby Lee Wheeler, a burglar, at Soledad Prison, April 29, 1959.

"I've made my peace with God," Rittger told San Quentin Warden Fred Dickson this morning. The warden quoted Rittger as saying: "I'm ready to go. I'm sorry for what I've done. I've made a mess of my life."

Protestant Chaplain Byron E. Eshelman was with Rittger twice last night and during his last hour. Rittger was up all night talking with guards about his experiences in mental and prison institutions.

"He did not seem upset," Associate Warden Dale B. Frady reported. He said Rittger was composed during the night when he talked with the guards.

This morning he ate a breakfast consisting of orange juice, two soft boiled eggs and a half a cantaloupe.

His last visitor, yesterday, was his stepfather, Richard Rittger of Chandler, Ariz. who will claim the body and take it to Arizona for burial. His mother did not visit during the last month.

Rittger's parents were divorced soon after his birth. By the time he was five, his mother and stepfather were

Brush Blaze Rages Close To Nike Site

Bulldozer-Equipped Crew Quells Fort Barry Fire

About a hundred firefighters equipped with bulldozers halted a 75-acre grass and brush fire that roared dangerously close to Nike guided missile and radar sites at Fort Barry in Southern Marin County yesterday.

The blaze, of unknown origin, burned for an hour and a half near the $2.5 million military installation located near the northern end of Golden Gate Bridge.

Strong westerly winds swept the blaze uphill toward the radar station. The fire was stopped 150 feet from the station's boundary after destroying 75 acres of grass and brush.

CONCERNED

Presidio Fire Department Chief George Geller said the property was never in any real danger. The Nike missile station lay one mile from the path of the flames. Firemen and the army were concerned because fuel and secret equipment are stored there.

The army sent 75 soldiers and five fire fighting units when the blaze was discovered before 2 p.m., sending up smoke visible from the Presidio. Two bulldozers from the 561st engineers at Fort Baker were used to cut firebreaks.

SEVEN UNITS

The Marin County Fire Department received a call for assistance at 2:02 p.m. They sent seven units and 20 men.

Some firemen speculated bullets from a hillside overlooking the fort may have caused the fire. But Chief Geller said the cause has not been determined. "It is still under investigation," he said.

No one was injured, and there was no damage.

All Three Satellites Are Spotted

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Moonwatch teams of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory spotted all three satellites launched from Florida today even before they had completed their first orbit.

The first visual sighting was made by a team at Sacramento. Team leader Arthur S. Leonard reported his team observed all three satellites within a span of eight seconds. (See story, page 2.)

A team at China Lake saw all three and a minute later, Smithsonian's Baker-Ninn satellite tracking camera at Organ Pass, N.M., photographed the orbiting triad, pinpointing their position.

Toll Increases In Philippine, Japan Floods

TOKYO (UPI) — Floods and landslides triggered by six days of torrential rains spread new death and destruction today through southern Japan and the Philippines.

And more rain is predicted.

More than 450 persons were dead or missing. Hundreds were injured. Tens of thousands were homeless. Property damages ran into tens of millions of dollars.

231 KILLED

Japan's national police agency reported that 231 persons had been killed in southern Japan, reeling under the most devastating floods since 1934. Police said 177 men, women and children were missing and 251 persons were injured.

The Philippines reported seven more deaths today, raising the toll to 16. Thirty fishermen were missing at sea and feared dead.

CROP DAMAGE

Damage to crops and public and private property in the Philippines was estimated at more than five million dollars. There was no official overall estimate of destruction in Japan but the construction ministry claimed 44.5-million-dollar damages to bridges and roads alone.

Hundreds of homes near flooding rivers were washed away or damaged. More than 10,000 Filipino families were homeless or in need of immediate relief assistance, authorities said.

CAT IN HIS PATH

Safety Belt Saves Student In Wreck

A safety belt was credited with saving the life of a 21-year-old Kentfield student last night when his roadster sports-car rolled on Highway 101 near Marin City.

The driver said he was trying to avoid hitting a cat.

Paul Eisenberg, a student of San Francisco State College, was headed north and was near the Marin City overpass when a "cat ran in front of me and I lost control (of the car). I think I hit the cat anyway."

Eisenberg's M.G. then struck an embankment on the east side of the lane, flipped on its side and landed upside down 45 feet down the highway. Eisenberg unstrapped his seat belt and got out of the car. He had a cut on his right arm and elbow.

Eisenberg was standing by his car when California Highway Patrolman Charles Woodworth of Mill Valley arrived. Woodworth took the driver to Marin General Hospital. His cuts were treated and he was sent home, 23 Stetson Avenue.

"This is a case," commented officer Woodworth, "where a seat belt was the difference between a very minor injury and a major injury, or fatality."

Mississippi Highway Patrol Says Riders Linked To Reds

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi highway patrol investigators charged today Freedom Riders were inspired, directed and encouraged by Communists.

Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong told a news conference at least two riders arrested during desegregation attempts in Jackson had participated in a Soviet-directed seminar in Cuba designed to teach students how to sit-in, walk-in, kneel-in and freedom ride.

He identified them as Katherine Pleune, 21, of Chicago, a white mimeograph machine operator; and James Robert Wahlstrom, 24, white University of Wisconsin student.

Birdsong quoted Miss Pleune as saying she was part of a group of 202 persons who went to Havana to hear a lecture by Premier Fidel Castro and his government officials on his intentions concerning the United States.

Instead, she said, the meeting turned out to be a seminar conducted by nine officials of the Soviet Union. She said Castro also addressed the seminar.

Miss Pleune said she was a native of Newark, N.J.

She told officers she was taught not to believe in God. She admitted to 100 to 150 arrests for demonstrations and picketing in New York, San Francisco and Chicago.

GOP House Group Elects Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Bob Wilson of California was elected chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee on the first ballot today.

Wilson, 45, a fifth-termer in the House, defeated William McCulloch of Ohio and Jack Westland of Washington, the only other nominees. His election was made unanimous.

Wilson succeeds Rep. William E. Miller of New York as head of the committee that looks after the interests of Republican nominees for seats in the House.

Miller resigned to become chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Maritime Cargo Now Going Air

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With 15 vessels tied up in San Francisco Bay by the maritime strike, some cargo which normally goes by ship has begun moving by air.

American President Lines' President Cleveland postponed its departure from San Francisco to Honolulu and the Orient from yesterday until Monday. APL also cancelled a scheduled Los Angeles stop for the Cleveland. Los Angeles passengers were to be brought to San Francisco.

Pan American World Airways is flying a 4,000 pound consignment of IBM machines by jet to Honolulu today. The airline flew 4,400 empty milk cartons and 1,320 pounds of women's clothes to the islands Wednesday.

The airline said it had carried some 450 persons to Hawaii who were stranded from Matson Navigation Co. ships tied up by the strike.

16TH ANNUAL

Art, Garden Fair To Open Tomorrow

The 16th annual Marin Art and Garden Fair opens at 6 p.m. tomorrow for a five day run in Ross.

Hours will be 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. from Saturday through July Fourth.

"Esprit de France" is the theme of the fair. Henry H. Cole, San Rafael landscape architect and designer of the show has created an entrance with colorful canvas, pictorial French scenes painted on panels forming a background and five hundred yellow marguerites and marigolds banked at the gates.

Working today on major garden exhibits were 23 Bay Area professional nurserymen, 18 amateur garden clubs and organizations at their garden entries, chairmen making way for the many flower arrangements due to arrive on the grounds tomorrow, artists setting up their art-in-action demonstrations, and others readying the many attractions visitors have come to expect at the Art and Garden Fairs.

Judging starts tomorrow morning.

(Winners will be announced in Saturday's Independent-Journal.)

Some $14,830 in prize money will be at stake. Awards as high as $425 for a first in a model garden expressing contemporary outdoor living will be awarded, according to Marcelle B. McCoy, fair manager.

To add to the attractions of the fair, entertainment will be provided. Tomorrow evening a fashion promenade to soft music by beauties of the Mannequin League of Marin wearing apparel from a San Francisco store will take place at 8:30 p.m. on a platform in front of the fountain at the Art and Garden Center.

Teamsters Agree To Avert Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A walkout of 100,000 teamsters in 11 Western states was averted when the union and employers agreed yesterday to extend talks for three weeks after the present contract expires July 1.

The union and employers agreed that any wage increase gained by July 21 would be retroactive to July 1.

'The Owl' Released From Penitentiary

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) — Basil (The Owl) Banghart, 61, once a formidable gangster, stepped out on parole after 27 years behind bars at Stateville Penitentiary.

He served time for his part in the 1933 kidnaping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor. He and his pal, Roger Touhy, had claimed that the abduction was a hoax.

Banghart said he had planned to see his wife, Mae, and daughter and grandchildren soon.

U.S. Indicts 'Pirate'; He's Still In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department announced today the indictment of the aerial highjacker who assumed the name of an old-time pirate, seized an American airliner over Florida and forced it to fly him to Cuba.

The indictment returned at Miami named Antulio Ramirez Ortiz, 34, an American citizen and native of Puerto Rico as the knife-and-gun wielding buccaneer of the airways.

For his bold exploit on May 1, Ramirez had borrowed the name of "El Pirata Cofresi" according to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. This means the pirate Cofresi, a notorious sea maurauder of the Spanish Main in the early 19th century.

Ramirez has not been arrested. He is presumed to be still in Cuba.

Reds Demonstrate Against U.S. Envoy

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (UPI) —A communist-led mob demonstrated against U.S. Ambassador Teodoro Moscoso when he arrived here today for a visit.

Police used tear gas to break up the demonstration in Baralt Plaza when Moscoso arrived from Caracas. Five persons were arrested.

Chief of Police Angel Soto Montiel blamed the Communists for the disorders.

TRIPLE SPACE PLAY—Drawing of three satellites in separate orbits nearly 600 miles above the earth illustrates the triple play scored by the U.S. last night. The three were hurled into space by one rocket. (AP Wirephoto)

Senate Passes JFK Space Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate last night approved President John F. Kennedy's stepped-up space program, designed to send a man on a roundtrip flight to the moon by 1970.

It voted a $1,784,300,000 authorization for the National Aeronautics and Space Agency (NASA) for the year starting Saturday.

The bill builds a foundation for the lunar exploration program, which is expected to draw seven to nine billion dollars in the next five years, and may ultimately cost from 20 to 40 billion dollars.

The measure now goes back to the House, which approved a version about 400 million dollars smaller the day before Kennedy proposed the accelerated program.

NUCLEAR SHOT

U.S. Orbits Three Satellites At Once

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The United States today orbited the first satellite powered by a nuclear battery in an historic "three-for-one" rocket shot that heralded a new era in the conquest of space.

The new moonlet, a 16-sided package named Transit IV-A, beeped out signals to test an all-weather system for global navigation. Two of its four radio voices received electric power from a grapefruit-sized generator using a radioactive isotope as fuel.

Near Transit IV-A, two other artificial satellites, Greb III and Injun, whirled around earth to collect radiation information that will be useful in plotting trips into space by man himself.

A single thunderous stroke by a two-stage Thor-Able-Star rocket fired at 12:23 a.m. swept the three satellites and an empty upper stage—1,622 pounds of equipment stamped "Made in U.S.A." — into a generally circular orbit estimated at 600 miles above earth.

The launching marked two steps into the future for the U.S. space program:

1. Marriage of the power of the atom to orbiting spacecraft. Nuclear generators are lightweight and long-lived, and will be used to provide electricity for communications, navigation and military satellites that will have to remain in operation for years.

2. Proof that multiple satellites can be launched successfully with a single rocket. For full-scale "space station" networks such as those for communications purposes, the initial cost will be lessened by the use of one booster to orbit several satellites in one crack.

There have been no indications that Russia has attempted either a multiple satellite launching or the use of nuclear power for electricity in payloads.

The launching went smoothly. About two and a half hours after the 80-foot snub-nosed rocket blasted into the sky, the Defense Department announced the satellites had gone into orbit.

Further information was withheld until data from tracking stations around the world could be analyzed.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

East German-Russ Pact

BERLIN (UPI) —East German head of state Walter Ulbricht said today that Communist East Germany and the Soviet Union are preparing unspecified "security measures" for use when a peace treaty is signed.

Ulbricht, whose formal title is chairman of the state council, the supreme governing body of East Germany, did not spell out the details.

But he called on the East Germans for "special efforts" to cope with problems that may arise with a treaty.

Debate On Algeria

PARIS (UPI) — The French National Assembly today pitched into an all but futile debate over President Charles de Gaulle's plans to partition Algeria unless the Moslem rebels come to terms with France.

De Gaulle still rules the nation with the near dictatorial powers he assumed under the constitution during the April revolt in Algeria and there was little parliament could do to sway his purpose.

The president himself was out of the capital, stumping the provinces seeking direct support from the people for his solution to France's giant North African headache.

Jayne Behind Curtain

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Jayne Mansfield is paying her first visit behind the iron curtain—to her in-laws—and the bosomy Hollywood blonde is "just thrilled."

Jayne and her Hungarian-born husband, muscleman Mickey Hargitay, arrived yesterday to see his mother, father and two brothers.

The state-run television organization, which rarely gets such foreign glamor on its screens, trundled its cameras to the airport to record the reunion.

Legion Convention

LONG BEACH (UPI) — More than 4,700 delegates gathered today in municipal auditorium for the 43rd annual meeting of the American Legion's Department of California. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will deliver the keynote address tomorrow.

Marilyn Hospitalized

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Marilyn Monroe has been hospitalized for the fourth time in five months.

The blonde beauty was taken by ambulance yesterday from her Manhattan apartment to Polyclinic Hospital, suffering from what a spokesman described as a mild intestinal disorder.

Accompanying her on the ride to the hospital was her second husband, former baseball star Joe DiMaggio, whom she divorced to marry playwright Arthur Miller. She later divorced Miller.

Bodies Still Missing

SEATTLE (UPI) — Dragging operations resumed today off the northwest Washington coast for the fuselage of a light plane which may hold the bodies of two men.

Five persons were killed when the plane hit a power line and plunged into the Pacific Ocean off the little village of Lapush, Wash., Tuesday.

Three bodies were recovered within hours of the crash but the bodies of Ed Koterba, 42, United Feature Snydicate columnist, and Don Cornwell, 40, a pilot for the El Paso Natural Gas Co. of El Paso, Tex., were still missing.

Recovered were the bodies of New M. Trimble, 34, travel editor and music critic of the Kansas City Star; E. G. Hines, 42, Seattle, an employee of an advertising firm, and Robert Adams, also of El Paso Natural Gas.

Tractor Deal Dead?

HAVANA (AP) — A foreign ministry source said today that President John F. Kennedy's comments on the tractors-for-prisoners issue seem to have closed the door to further negotiations.

Kennedy told his Washington news conference yesterday that the volunteer committee of Americans had done all it could and it was now up to Fidel Castro to "change his views."

The general feeling here was that the Cuban prime minister won't reduce his demands and if the Tractors for Freedom Committee does not meet them, negotiations are probably ended.

Nixon To Write Book

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will write a book about his experiences in public life, a spokesman for Doubleday & Co., which will publish the book, announced yesterday.

Chandler Death Probe

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The State Bureau of Hospitals will investigate the death of movie actor Jeff Chandler.

"We feel that on the basis of the wide public interest in this case," Gordon R. Cumming, head of the state agency, said last night, "we should verify that hospital procedures over which we have enforcement responsibility were in order.

Bats guide themselves in flight by means of echoes from their short ultrasonic cries.

Realism Wanted In Tour Of Jail

MANITOWOC, Wis. (AP)—Children who visit the Manitowoc police station are later asked by their teachers to write a letter to the department telling them how they liked the tour and what they would like to see next time.

"Most of the suggestions are that they would like to see somebody in one of the cells next time," Police Inspector Elmer Scherer says.

PG&E Planning $61 Million Atomic Plant At Bodega Bay

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A 61-million-dollar atomic power plant large enough to serve a city of a half-million population will be built by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. at Bodega Bay just over the Marin County line in Sonoma County.

PG&E president Norman R. Sutherland said yesterday the installation will be powered by a boiling water reactor generating 325,000 kilowatts. He said the nuclear plant will produce electricity at the same cost as that generated by a conventional steam plant.

The U.S. does not have a plant which is economically competitive, but Sutherland said PG&E's 60,000-watt Humboldt Bay nuclear unit is expected to produce electricity competitively in 1962.

Construction of the Bodega Bay atomic plant will begin next year and is expected to be completed by 1965. It will be located on 225 acres on a peninsula.

Sutherland said applications for permission will be filed soon with the Atomic Energy Commission and the California Public Utilities Commission.

The boiling water reactor will be underground. Fuel for the first three-and-one-half years of operation will be 77 tons of uranium, which will cost $8,405,800 in addition to the capital cost.

The plan called for distillation of sea water to provide fresh water which would be heated by the reactor and turned into steam to operate a turbine generator.

PG&E, besides constructing the Bodega and Humboldt Bays projects, also is a member of groups developing atomic power plants in Illinois and Pennsylvania, and Vallecitos, California.

4 CPAs At Meeting

Four Marin County accountants are attending a meeting of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants in San Diego. They are Peter Helms of San Anselmo, James L. Cockburn Jr. of Ross, P. J. Wikel of Larkspur and A. W. Gallagher of Sausalito.

Red Cross Report Hit By Eichmann

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP) — Adolf Eichmann, denying for the eighth day on the witness stand all responsibility for the Nazis' mass slaughter of Jews, today repudiated a Red Cross report that called him a powerful man in the vast plot.

"I had no role, I had no authority," testified the former Gestapo lieutenant colonel in charge of "Jewish affairs" in the Third Reich.

This was his reaction to a report made by the International Red Cross after a visit to a concentration camp north of Prague early in April 1945, a few weeks before the Nazi collapse.

The report told of meeting with Eichmann in Prague and described him as a man "who played a first rate part in all these concentration camps."

To this Eichmann said: "No, I had no role whatsoever in the camps."

Fresh Asian Dangers Sounded By Nikita

GENEVA (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has sounded a veiled threat on Vietnam that spells fresh dangers for the uneasy peace in Southeast Asia.

In Moscow yesterday, Khrushchev said he was confident that the struggle of the Vietnamese for the reunification of their homeland will end in full victory.

This was taken by some observers to mean Khrushchev backed the Communist North Vietnamese regime's plan to "reunite" the divided nation by ousting the Western-backed South Vietnamese government of Ngo Dinh Diem by force.

The Communist North Vietnamese have been playing an important part in the troubles in Laos.

United States officials attending the 14-nation conference recently reported that at least 1,000 Communist North Vietnamese were known to be in action alongside the Red-oriented Pathet Lao rebels.

Arms supplies to the Pathet Lao forces have been coming from North Vietnam, and continue to be supplied from there.

Communist North Vietnam, in fact, appears to be the staging area for infiltration of South Vietnam, and from there to Laos, with an eye beyond on Cambodia and Thailand.

The Soviet airlift to rebel forces in Laos is known to be operating from North Vietnam.

consulting doctors as to whether he was normal. He began stealing when he was 7.

He was placed in the University of California Langley Porter psychiatric clinic at 9. From then on, he was in constant trouble— burglaries, rape of a 15-year-old girl, confinement in mental institutions and prisons, escapes, assault of a prisoner.

He already was serving four life terms when he killed Wheeler as the culmination of many arguments at Soledad.

The judge who pronounced Rittger's death sentence called him "antisocial and possessed of no conscience whatsoever."

Rittger was denied clemency by Gov. Edmund Brown last week. Brown's decision came after a clemency hearing at which he was told that granting Rittger's life would be signing a death warrant for some other person.

Los Angeles Mayor To Take Oath

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Congressman Samuel W. Yorty at noon tomorrow will be sworn in as the 42nd mayor in this city's 111-year history.

Outgoing Mayor Norris Poulson will present his successor with a large golden "key to the city" at the inaugural ceremony. Yorty officially takes office on Saturday.

Poulson has been mayor since July 1, 1953. He succeeded Fletcher Bowron who served from Sept. 26, 1938. Bowron, now a superior court judge, replaced Frank L. Shaw who took office in July, 1933.

The city's first mayor was Alpheus P. Hodges, who took the oath of office on July 1, 1850. He served one year, followed by a succession of mayors who served yearly terms.

Car Strikes Wall Near Stinson

A San Francisco man suffered minor bruises late yesterday afternoon when a car he was driving struck a low wall on the Shoreline Highway two miles south of Stinson Beach.

Milroy S. Braye, 40, a maintenance man for a San Francisco bar, told California Highway Patrolmen that he came to a blind curve, and saw another car coming in his direction. "So I took to the ditch and hit the wall."

He told officers the other car did not stop, nor could he describe anything about it. He told patrolmen he had been drinking.

Cleanup Helps Fight Crime

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) —A clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaign not only gives a city a better appearance, but helps the police department fight crime, says Police Superintendent J. Milton Litchard.

Clean alleys, trimmed shrubbery and better-lighted yards reduce the number of hiding places for attackers.

"Furthermore," he says, "as youthful energy is converted into productive actions, the value of juvenile decency becomes clearer to youngsters."

Plea Due In Larkspur Attack Case

Franklin Delano Davis, 27-year-old mechanic on five years probation for a 1960 stabbing, is to plea in Municipal Court July 10 on a charge of statutory rape of a 15-year-old girl.

Davis, with a record of arrests and convictions dating from 1956, appeared yesterday before Municipal Judge Leonard A. Thomas after having been jailed June 21 and later released on $1,050 bail.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Bruce R. Bales said Davis has a record of at least a dozen arrests in the county. He was charged with forcible rape of a married woman in December, 1956, and his probation report shows he admitted violence in raping and robbing. He was not tried after her psychiatrist asked that she not be put on the stand.

In March, 1958, he was arrested for child molesting and jailed 10 days and put on three years probation. He got three months in jail in May, 1958, for battery, and six months for assault and battery in January, 1959.

While serving time on a work furlough gang in April, 1959, he was arrested again for assault. December 18, 1959, he was jailed for swearing in the elevator of the Court House.

In February, 1960, he was convicted of cutting a three and one-half inch slash in the stomach of one Don Travis after a bar room brawl. He was convicted of a felony, assault with a deadly weapon, and sentenced April 25, 1960 to the state prison.

Execution of sentence was suspended and he was put on five years probation.

In the recent arrest, he originally was booked on suspicion of forcible rape. Bales said this was reduced because evidence indicated the victim did not cry out or struggle.

Davis gave two addresses when booked on the rape, which the girl said took place June 4 in Larkspur. In a visit to the Independent-Journal office last night he gave 136 Madrone Avenue, Larkspur, as his most recent address.

Bales pointed out that Davis yesterday got his hearing switched to Judge Thomas' court by filing a disqualification motion against Judge Harold J. Haley who, Davis complained, was "prejudiced" against him.

Bales said conviction on the current charge should land Davis in San Quentin.

Peace Corps Training Will Begin At U.C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first 29 persons will report at the University of California this week to prepare for Peace corps teaching assignments in Africa.

The 29 are the first of about 70 who have volunteered for teaching assignments in Ghana or some other West African nation. The number to be assigned to Ghana will not be determined until August 26.

Fire Budget Is Approved For Stinson

Final budget for 1961-62 was approved last night by commissioners of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District in the amount of $11,220.

This is a rise from this year's budget, Commissioner E. C. Hubbard said, since during the year the district has taken in more area including Seadrift, the Highlands and ranchland behind the Highlands. He said the tax rate could not be estimated at this time since the district must await a tax appraisal from the county assessor and this would also vary from the present rate because of the added area.

Specifications for a new fire truck will be sent out for bid this week, Hubbard said. The truck is to have four-wheel drive and a large water carrying capacity to handle grass fires.

Nine Scouts To Attend Conference

Nine youths representing eight Explorer units of Marin Council, Boy Scouts of America, will attend a three-day conference on vocational exploration, citizenship and Explorer methods at the Naval Air Station in San Diego July 7-9.

Those attending and units represented will be Richard Pingatore (leader), Richard Lauchenauer and Drake Dawson, all from Post 39 in Santa Venetia; Howard Anapu, Post 1, Mill Valley American Legion; Joseph L. Smith III, Post 11 Kentfield Civic League; John Strider, Post 57 San Rafael Kiwanis; Dwight Stewart, Air Explorer Squadron 349 of 349th Troop Carrier wing, Hamilton Air Force Base; Ronald Gossing, Post 188 Greenbrae Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; Bill Soldavini, Post 15 San Anselmo Lions, and Peter Noyes, Sea Explorer Ship 20 San Rafael Elks.

OBITUARY

Gen. A. M. Shearer Rites Set

Funeral services for Brig. Gen. Alfred M. Shearer (USA, ret.), father of Mrs. Thomas F. Keating of San Rafael, will be held Saturday in Sacramento.

Mrs. Keating's father died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital following a recurring illness. He was 67. His daughter, Mrs. Keating, is the wife of Marin County Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating of San Rafael.

General Shearer entered the Army after attending the University of Michigan. He was commissioned during World War I as a second lieutenant in the Infantry in 1917. He had served in the European Theater during World War II, as Deputy Signal Officer for the Service of Supply, and for his work was awarded the Legion of Merit with an Oak Leaf Cluster. He also received the Order of the British Empire, the French Croix de Guerre with a Palm, and L'Ordre de L'Armee.

Among other commands during his long career in the Signal Corps General Shearer headed the Sacramento Signal Depot from August, 1946, to September, 1948. He retired as Chief of Procurement and Supply for the Signal Corps at the Pentagon in 1951. He resided with his wife, Elisabeth S. Shearer, in Sacramento for a decade before his death.

General Shearer is survived by his wife, a brother, James Shearer of Chicago and five grandchildren.

Burial will be at Arlington National Cemetery Wednesday. The general will be buried next to his son, the late Lt. Alfred M. Shearer Jr., a B-24 bombardier. His son was killed in action in the European Theater during World War II.

Mill Valley Hears Report On Traffic

Planning consultant Robert Cornish presented a progress report on the circulation system and parking facilities in Mill Valley at the city planning commission meeting Tuesday.

The report will be a part of the Mill Valley Master Plan. A map showing streets and parking will be posted in the city hall at the beginning of next week.

Commissioners gave plan approval to Kerns and Walker Inc. of Corte Madera for remodeling of a structure to be used as a dry cleaning establishment at 450 Miller Avenue. The business is to be started by Randall Walker of San Rafael and Edward Kerns of Los Gatos.

PG&E Office Bids Being Studied

Bids for construction of its North Bay Division Office Building at Third and Brook Streets in downtown San Rafael are being studied by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Architectural approval for the modern two-story structure of stone and aluminum solar screen exterior was granted Tuesday night by the San Rafael Planning Commission.

The building and costs for improving the area will total about $500,000.

A large section of the gas works rendered obsolete by the use of piped-in natural gas remains to be torn down.

PG&E spokesmen in San Francisco said contracts will be let as soon as the company has completed analysis of the bids it has received.

The attractive structure, to be modern and air conditioned throughout, was designed by the San Rafael architectural firm of Gromme & Priestley.

Lighters Called Mark Of The Peasant Class

CHICAGO (UPI) — Use of matches or lighters to light cigars is the mark of a peasant, according to a Chicago restaurant operator.

Max Blouet claims the "most correct way" is with a 12-inch cedar wood taper. He said he's considering installing them in his Pump Room at the Ambassador East Hotel.

Maryland was named for Queen Henrietta Maria, wife of King Charles I of England.

No Clashes With Taylor Are Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff expects no clash of authority with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, President John F. Kennedy's new military adviser.

Sources close to the chairman, Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, said today he welcomes the Taylor appointment.

Taylor is clearly on record as opposed to the joint chiefs system. On several occasions he has called for dissolving the joint chiefs setup and replacing it with a single defense chief of staff and an advisory board he has called the supreme military council.

Lemnitzer, who served under Taylor a little more than two years ago, does not regard Kennedy's new assignment for Taylor as imposing a new layer between the president and the service chiefs, these sources said.

Leader Of Katanga Wants Own 'Summit'

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Katanga President Moise Tshombe said tonight he will send a delegation to the Leopoldville parliament only if the other Congo leaders meet him first in a summit meeting.

Tshombe told newsmen that he is ready "in principle" to send a parliamentary delegation to Leopoldville.

But the Congo summit talks must be held first to clear the ground for any parliamentary session, he said.

Tshombe, who was released only last week after two months of imprisonment by the Leopoldville regime, dismissed Leopoldville Premier Joseph Ileo as "this man who pretends to be premier."

Tshombe, who earlier claimed he was mistreated during his imprisonment and credited Congolese army commander Gen. Joseph Mobutu with winning his release, said today the only man in Leopoldville with any real power "is Mobuto."

Asked about his impression of Congolese president Joseph Kasavubu, Tshombe only smiled and said, "I'd prefer not to say anything about Kasavubu if you don't mind."

Tshombe left Leopoldville last week after promising to give up his dreams of an independent Katanga and to send a parliamentary delegation to Leopoldville.

But yesterday he told the Katanganese national assembly, "Long live independent Katanga."

4 Salt Firm Executives Indicted For Price Fix

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — A federal grand jury has indicted four of the nation's most prominent salt companies on charges of fixing prices in the sale of rock salt.

The indictment returned yesterday named Morton Salt Co., Chicago; International Salt Co., Clarks Summit, Pa.; Diamond Crystal Salt Co., St. Clair, Mich., and Carey Salt Co., Hutchinson, Kan.

Governors Wind Up Talks, Select A New Chairman

HONOLULU (AP)—In obvious reflection of the mood of the country, the nation's governors stuck to the middle of the road in their 53rd annual conference.

In business sessions which wound up yesterday, the conference elected a conservative Republican, Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire, as its new chairman. It picked Hershey, Pa., for next year's meeting, June 30-July 5.

Just about every shade of political opinion got representation on the new executive committee, headed by Powell. Its members include Govs. Elmer L. Andersen, Minnesota Republican; Edmund G. Brown, California Democrat; Buford Ellington, Tennessee Democrat; Paul Fannin, Arizona Republican; David L. Lawrence, Pennsylvania Democrat; Edwin L. Mechem, New Mexico Republican; Gaylor A. Nelson, Wisconsin Democrat, and John B. Swainson, Michigan Democrat.

In its official actions, the conference gave backing to President John F. Kennedy in international negotiations but stopped short of approving federal aid to education in the form the president wants it.

The governors adopted their first statement on civil rights in the history of their conference. But it was so vaguely worded that Southerners who had steamed up for a bitter fight against a stronger resolution offered by 15 Republicans let the measure go into the record without bothering to debate it.

Hastings Degrees For 6 Marinites

Six Marin County men are among 118 members of the class of 1961 certified by directors of the University of California's Hastings College of Law as eligible for LL.B. degrees.

They are Gerald D. Burton, of San Rafael; Richard K. Dahlinger of Corte Madera; Richard E. Johnston, William Kelly and Peter G. Stone of Mill Valley; and James D. Rohde, of Kentfield.

Dean David E. Snodgrass said today the professional degrees will be conferred by President Clark Kerr, by authority of the university regents. Hastings, though the official law department of the university, is conducted by its own board of directors.

Baby skunks usually are born in April or May. Six is the average litter.

Senate Unit Rejects Two Kennedy Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Operations Committee has rejected two more of President John F. Kennedy's plans to streamline the overworked federal agencies which regulate the nation's basic industries.

By identical 5-4 votes, the committee rejected Kennedy's proposals to let subordinate officials handle some of the work of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). The opposition of two Southern Democrats tipped the scales.

The Senate was expected to go along with the committee decision tomorrow, thus formally killing the proposals. The CAB plan would go into effect automatically Sunday and the FTC shakeup on July 8 unless the Senate or House specifically vetoes them.

BATTING ZERO

Kennedy is batting zero so far on his proposals to overhaul seven federal regulatory agencies. The House earlier rejected his plan to revamp the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The Senate turned down his plan to reorganize the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

The proposals were designed to help clear up the backlog of cases pending before the agencies. More powers to decide routine cases would be delegated to hearing examiners, freezing the commissioners for major rule-making actions.

Voting against the CAB and FTC reorganizations were committee chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) and Sens. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-S.C.), Karl Mundt (D-S.D.), Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.) and Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.).

The plans were supported by Sens. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn), Ernest Gruening (D-Alaska) and Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine).

APPROVED

In a related development, the House commerce committee approved legislation to speed up proceedings before the Federal Communications Commission. The bill was viewed as a compromise of Kennedy's rejected FCC plan.

The bill does not include the president's controversial proposal to strengthen the hand of FCC Chairman Newton W. Minow. But it would allow the commission to rule out in advance the possibility of review in minor cases.

Some broadcasters and some commission members came out against giving Minow new powers after the FCC chief criticized most television programming as a "vast wasteland."

Minow appeared before a Senate commerce subcommittee today to support the bill.

The measure also was backed by Robert M. Booth Jr., president of the FCC Bar Assn. However, he called for certain changes.

Pay Drive Promised By Labor

UNITY HOUSE, Pa. (AP)—The AFL-CIO today charted a new drive for pay increases despite an administration call for wage restraint.

Federation leaders said in a policy statement that wages have been rising too slowly for the good of the nation's economy. And they said that fears of inflation expressed by some of President John F. Kennedy's aides are untimely and unwise.

George Meany, AFL - CIO president, took issue with assertions that the recession is over. He insisted the recession continues so long as there are nearly five million unemployed.

"The problem is not inflation," Meany said. "The problem is to put the economy back to work and that means putting unemployed workers back to work."

The AFL-CIO executive council, in adopting its economic policy statement yesterday, said that Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and Walt Rostow, deputy special assistant to Kennedy, have urged unions in recent talks to exercise wage increase restraint to avoid a new wage-price spiral.

"American labor," the council said, "now as always is willing to take the lead in any sacrifice required for the safety and welfare of our nation. But higher wages under the circumstances now are not a danger but a positive good.

"It is argued in some quarters that wage increases will force prices up, harm the competitive position of American goods in the world markets and therefore weaken us in our struggle with international communism. The exact contrary is true."

Ford, GM Issue Warning On Inflationary Wage Demands

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. today joined General Motors Corp. in telling the United Auto Workers union that new wage contracts must be non-inflationary.

The UAW moved on to Ford today from General Motors, where it opened 1961 bargaining yesterday for new contracts to replace current three-year pacts expiring Aug. 31.

As he did at GM and Ford, UAW President Walter P. Reuther will lead union bargainers into conferences with Chrysler Corp. Friday and with American Motors Corp. July 6.

Malcolm Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, issued a statement today calling for a non-inflationary settlement and expressing concern with "detractors" who hold that "the only way to avoid costly strikes and inflationary settlements is for the government to set the terms."

"The right of management and labor to work out their differences across the bargaining table appears to be on trial in this country," Denise's statement said.

Speaking for the UAW at General Motors yesterday, Reuther said: "We hope to find a settlement at the bargaining table without the need of assistance or intervention from Washington. We are not looking for a fight. We are looking for economic justice."

At General Motors today bargainers turned to a union proposal of reducing work time via a shorter work week or shorter work day "to meet the problem of unemployment."

Louis G. Seaton, a GM vice president and its chief negotiator, voiced hope for a peaceful bargaining-table settlement, but also said that "an excessive increase in labor costs, whether in the form of wages or in fringe benefits, can only contribute to unsound wage and price movement.

"It must be clearly recognized" he continued, that any settlement "should not contribute to such inflationary pressures."

Kennedy Signs $11.7 Billion Highway Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy signed into law today legislation to assure completion of the interstate highway system by 1972.

In a White House ceremony attended by a large group of senators and representatives and other government officials, Kennedy said the legislation would "increase the nation's defense readiness and decrease the appalling highway death toll.

The bill Kennedy signed "with great pleasure" pumps an additional 11.7 billion dollars into the interstate program.

The financing arrangements include 600 million dollars a year from continuing the gasoline tax at its present 4-cents-a-gallon rate, 150 million dollars from other highway taxes, and the switching of 5 per cent of the excise tax on trucks and buses from the general treasury to the highway fund, for another 150 million dollars annually.

The diversion, which the administration opposed, was postponed until July 1, 1963.

The bill also continues for two years the provision granting bonuses in allocations to states that ban advertising billboards along the new roads.

The bill contains these tax increases:

The use tax on trucks and buses over 26,000 pounds, now $1.50 per 1,000 pound:, to $3.

The tax on highway tires from 8 cents a pound and on inner tubes from 9 cents a pound to 10 cents. The tax on tread rubber from 3 cents a pound to 5 cents.

The fur seal has larger harems than any other mammal in the world. Forty to sixty mates are his average.

Social Security Bill Agreement Reached

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress was ready to send President John F. Kennedy a bill today that would mean higher Social Security checks for about 3.7 million persons by the first week of September.

A House-Senate conference committee reached final agreement on a compromise bill yesterday and Congress was expected to approve it today. Kennedy was expected, in turn, to sign it into law by Monday so that the fatter checks won't be delayed until October.

If Congress approves the compromise, it will be the second tax-boosting bill it has passed on to Kennedy in four days. On Monday, Congress approved a bill putting higher taxes on trucks and tires to help finance the interstate highway system.

The legislation would extend to men the option women workers now have of retiring at age 62 with reduced benefits, instead of waiting for full benefits at 65. This would not add to long-run costs, and thus would not require any new taxes.

However, the measure would also provide a 10 per cent boost in cash benefits for widows, affecting 1.5 million persons, and raise to $40 the present $33 minimum monthly benefit for workers retiring at age 65. This would mean increases up to $7 a month for 2.2 million persons.

Bounty payments for foxes, coyotes and bobcats cost Michigan sportsmen $201,590 in 1960.

AMA Out Against Aged Care Legislation

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Medican Assn. today declared itself strongly opposed to any legislation of the type to give health care for the aged under social security.

The policy-making house of delegates of the AMA approved a report asserting that a program of aid such as that proposed in administration bills now before the House and Senate does not "meet the needs of the situation."

The report said that type of health aid "interferes with the doctor-patient relationship; interferes with the rights of doctors employed at hospitals; is inordinately expensive; leads inevitably to further encroachments by government into medical care; results eventually in the deterioration of the type of medical care rendered the public; and is detrimental to the public interest."

The medical profession, the AMA resolution said, "is the only group which can render medical care under any system and that profession is best qualified to determine how the best medical care can be delivered."

Piggy-Back Virus, Cancer Link Explored

NEW YORK (AP)—Piggy-back viruses possibly are a cause of cancer, medical researchers said today.

These viruses would pick up and carry tiny amounts of cancer-causing chemicals in piggy-back fashion. When the viruses invaded living cells, they could seek the cells with the chemicals to trigger off cancerous growths.

Mouse experiments provide evidence for the virus-cancer link, and perhaps the same thing happens in humans, the researchers told the American Medical Association.

The researchers wondered whether garden-variety viruses might introduce cancer agents, somewhat like a mosquito bite can transmit malaria.

They first injected mice with moderate doses of a polio virus, or a virus used to vaccinate against smallpox, or two viruses which cause grippe-like diseases.

These injections didn't produce significant illness.

Nothing much happened, either, when mice were given small doses of two cancer-causing chemicals.

But when mice were infected both with one of the viruses and one of the cancer agents, the mice developed a variety of cancers.

Airman Fined For Drunken Driving

Hugh R. McDermott, 36, attached to the 78th Fighter Wing at Hamilton Air Force Base, was sentenced Tuesday to $132 fine and was directed to do no driving for three months on conviction of drunken driving on Highway 101 in Novato June 17.

MILL VALLEY HOME FOR ELDERLY

Mill Valley planning commissioners approved plans Tuesday for this guest home to be built at 297 Miller Avenue, designed to accommodate up to 36 ambulatory elderly people. To be called the Mill Valley Guestorium, it will have, in addition to rooms, a large living room, dining room and workshop for hobbyists. It is to be built by Hans F. Bretschneider of San Francisco. Design is by Wagstaff and McDonald of San Anselmo. Rents are to be $200 for a single room, and $150 for each person if two share a room. The rents include food and complete care.

Kennedy Farm Plan Dealt Crushing Blow

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's controversial new farm plan was dealt a crushing, and possibly fatal, blow today by the House Agriculture Committee.

By a 20 to 15 vote, the committee killed a last-chance compromise version of the administration's proposal to set up new machinery for controlling farm production.

Six Democrats joined with the committee's 14 Republicans to strip all traces of the administration's plan from a catch-all farm bill being prepared for House floor action.

The disputed plan would have permitted producers of virtually all farm commodities to subject themselves to production controls to bolster prices. The controls would have been invoked on a commodity by a two-thirds vote of its producers.

Postal Rate Boost Due More Thought

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Post Office Committee reversed itself today and agreed to consider a major boost in postal rates, including a five-cent letter.

The action was a victory for the president. Some members said it revived chances for congressional action this year on some compromise boost in postal revenues.

The House committee a week ago voted 10 to 9 to kill the administration bill to provide a record-high $741,000,000 increase in postal rates.

Today the committee by a 13 to 8 margin reconsidered that vote. It then voted to delay further action until July 11.

Gate Span Tolls Dropping Again

Cost of commute books for use on the Golden Gate Bridge will drop from $8 to $6.50 on July 1. The new 50-ticket book is good for 70 days and covers a commuter's car and all passengers. The new toll cut drops the rate to 13 cents per crossing.

The toll cut was preceded in September 1960 by a reduction from $9 to $8 on the current commute book.

Attending P-TA Meet

Miss Frances Parks, Tamalpais district high school counselor, will participate tomorrow in the California Congress of Parents and Teachers at the University of California. Miss Parks is on the staff of Sir Francis Drake High School.

Road Money Talks Set By Mayors

The Marin Council of Mayors at a dinner meeting in Sausalito last night appointed a two-man committee to meet with the county public works director.

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis and Larkspur City Manager Ronald E. Piper will meet with public works director Marvin W. Brigham. The group will discuss county allocation of money for city roads that are also county thoroughfares.

The plan, drawn up by a joint county-city committee, calls for dollar matching by the city for county road money. Mayor McInnis proposed that council representatives meet with Brigham because the "director too thought it needed some amending."

The council moved that after the consultation, the amendments would be submitted to the cities for approval. The council would then go before the county board of supervisors with the "suggestions."

No date was set for the mayor-director meeting.

Terra Linda Group Lowering Tax Rate

Terra Linda Community Service District directors approved a tentative budget Tuesday evening dropping next fiscal year's tax rate by 37.5 cents.

The new $24,600 operating budget would require only a 57.4 cent tax. This year's 95 cent tax rate was necessary to support a $39,000 budget.

Board president Dr. Michael J. Franzblau said the tax cut is possible because of the economic operation of the district the past three years. He explained an unallocated reserve of $25,000 has been set up during the district's four years of operation. "We want to pass this savings on to our taxpayers," he said.

The new budget includes a $5,000 capital expenditure for a living quarters addition to the firehouse. The district also will purchase a 1,000-gallon pumper, making a total of four pieces of equipment in its fire department.

A full-time fireman will be hired. Edward Smith, 36, Reno, Nev., fireman for approximately three years, will start the job with the Terra Linda Fire Department Monday.

The board authorized director John Duckett to proceed with plans for a permanent sprinkler system for watering parkway lands in the district. The system will be installed during July.

Directors passed a resolution asking the County Department of Public Works and Walter Castro Sr., district one county supervisor, for completion of Las Gallinas Avenue to Lucas Valley Road and for the extension of Manuel T. Freitas Parkway into the Fairfax area.

Legion Post Hopes To Buy AF Plane

Mill Valley American Legion Post 284 is negotiating with Hamilton Air Force Base to secure an obsolete bomber or fighter plane to be located on Project 17, F. W. Mosher Jr., first vice commander said today. If secured and approved by the city, it will be set up in a permanent location.

An appropriation of $50 has been approved by the legionnaires to purchase an American flag for the Project 17 flag pole, the flag to be secured by Post Adjutant Martin Jukich in time for a ceremony tentatively set for July 4.

Boys State Night will be held July 10, Mosher said, at the Legion Hall at which time boys state representatives Allen Putney of Bolinas and Lawrence Hamilton of Mill Valley will report on the recent Sacramento Boys State Conference.

SHALL WE DANCE, CHA, CHA, CHA?

Actress Elizabeth Taylor, in apparent good spirits, joined in an impromptu dance with two visiting Russian Moiseyev dancers at a party in Hollywood last night. The party was thrown by Miss Taylor and her husband, singer Eddie Fisher, for the Russians, who found what they liked most about the party was chili beans. The dancers were also treated to a fracas when actor Lawerence Tierney tried to crash the affair. Witnesses said Tierney didn't mind the Russians, he was just unhappy when no one would serve him. He was booked on charges of drunkeness. (AP Wirephoto)

Drug Traffic For Teeners On Increase

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A governor's study commission reported today that more and more teenagers in the past year have started using easily obtained barbiturate and stimulant drugs—the so-called "benies" and others.

American-made drugs are shipped to Mexican border towns and wind up in the pockets of youngsters in this country, reported Governor Edmund G. Brown's Special Study Commission on Narcotics.

And unlike heroin and marijuana, there apparently is no social stigma attached to the use of the drugs.

'ACCEPTABLE'

So many adults — including parents—take them, the investigators found, that "many juveniles consider the use of these drugs socially acceptable."

An alarming increase in the drug traffic was discovered all over the state, but especially in the Los Angeles area.

At the present rate, the number of dangerous drug arrests there in 1961 will be more than double those of 1960, the report said.

During the last two months of 1960 and the first four months of this year, Los Angeles juvenile officers have arrested more youngsters for violating the drug laws than for marijuana and heroin offenses combined.

San Diego police also report more arrests for drug use.

Many of these teenagers, the commission found, had never been in trouble with the law before.

CONTROLS LACKING

The commission's special interim report was critical of the lack of legal controls that permit easy sale.

The report said that in one 23-day period, a million units of the drugs were delivered in Tijuana, Mexico, from a single American drug firm. In a three-day period, 600,000 units from another American firm were delivered to the same town.

Kuwait Shrugs Off Threats From Iraq

KUWAIT (AP) — The city of Kuwait shrugged off the threat from Iraq and returned to normal today.

Officials generally believe Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem will quietly shelve his claim to the oil-rich sheikdom—at least for a while—because of the marked lack of support from other Arab governments.

With the temperature already in the 90s an hour after dawn, Kuwait turned its back on patriotic demonstrations of the past two days and returned to work.

NORMAL TRADE

Crowds bustled in the fish market along the steaming waters of the Persian Gulf. Hundreds of flashy American and European cars, symbols of Kuwait's oil wealth, ferried between the city and the airport. At every corner groups of workmen waited for trucks to take them to the oil fields 30 miles inland or to the oil port north of the capital.

But the man in the desert was still excited. Lines of white-robed Bedouins in from the hinterland lined up outside the single-story post office in downtown Kuwait to hand in telegrams pledging support for their ruler, Sheik Sir Abdullah As-Salim As-Sabah.

In Beirut, Kuwait's deputy ruler, Sheik Abdullah Mubarak, dismissed Iraq's claim on his little country as "shouts and talk."

RADIO DRUMFIRE

Iraqi leaders kept up a radio drumfire demanding the "peaceful return" of the neighboring sheikdom on the Persian Gulf and hinted they would claim other oil areas on the west coast of the Gulf.

Sheik Mubarak, 43, heir-aparent to the Kuwait throne and head of its tiny 2,400-man army, interrupted in Labanon to rush home Tuesday after Kassem threatened to take over the tiny but fabulously rich sheikdom.

Mubarak flew back to Beirut last night and said his return was "clear evidence of the calm situation in Kuwait." He added that "the situation on the Iraq-Kuwait border is very quiet."

Winds Slow Kern Canyon Firefighters

PORTERVILLE (AP) — Firefighters reported today their efforts to battle a brush and timber fire in the Kern River Canyon area of Inyo National forest have been slowed by gusty winds.

The fire has blackened more than 2,000 acres in a rugged area known as Hole in the Ground.

Men and equipment were airlifted to aid the 250 men already on the fire lines. Aerial borate was dropped.

Operations are made more hazardous, firemen said, by the presence of hundreds of rattlesnakes flushed out of their holes by the fire's heat.

The varying hare gets its name from the fact its brown summer coat is replaced by one of snow white during the winter months.

Protest By Neighbors Blocks San Rafael Apartment Proposal

A protest by neighbors of the area has blocked plans for a four-unit apartment building planned by Weber & Timmer for the north side of Mission Avenue east of Laurel Place in San Rafael.

The matter came up before the San Rafael Planning Commission this week. In the confusion the commission first approved and then rejected the plans.

Several persons living in the area appeared before the commission.

They objected to the apartment project on the grounds that they have an easement for their cars and have a difficult time driving in and out at present. They fear the addition of a new building with more cars using the easement would create an impossible situation.

One of the complaining citizens, George S. Collins, of 331 Laurel Place, said he had checked with various city offices to learn where to register his protest.

Assistant City Planner Joan Castrillon later explained to a reporter that part of the confusion was due to the change a few weeks ago in the city zoning ordinance.

Previously the planning commission had architectural control over apartment buildings in certain specified areas. The ordinance now is changed to give the commission control over all apartment buildings in the city.

Miss Castrillon said an unidentified woman called the planning department about six months ago to protest against the apartment plans—when no plans had been submitted to the city. She said the woman was referred to the building department, which then had the sole authority over such projects.

Private Race

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Peace Justice Lucien A. Morin fined Chester Berardi $50 for "holding a speed contest" on a county road. Police said Berardi, 18, told them he arrived at the Monroe County Fairgrounds too late to register for drag strip races, so he decided to have his own race later. His opponent escaped.

The American marten is close kin to the famous Russian sable.

Kennedy Family Leaves Tomorrow For Weekend At Hyannis Port

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy and his family will fly to Cape Cod tomorrow for a long Fourth of July weekend at their home in Hyannis Port, Mass., the White House announced today.

Kennedy, his wife and their two children plan to fly by jet, from Andrews Air Force Base and landing one hour later at Otis Air Force Base.

The air base is near Falmouth, about 18 miles from the Kennedy summer home. The family may travel by helicopter between Otis and Hyannis Port.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy would return to Washington next Wednesday. He did not know whether Mrs. Kennedy and the children would remain on the cape.

The president for some time has considered the possibility of commuting to Cape Cod for weekends during the warmer parts of the summer and settling down there for a vacation once Congress adjourns.

He last visited Hyannis Port over the Memorial Day weekend shortly before he left for Europe.

New 59-Unit Apartment Is Approved

The San Rafael Planning Commission granted architectural approval to the 59-unit Northridge Apartments at its meeting Tuesday night.

Work is expected to begin in about a month on Nova Albion Way south of Las Gallinas Avenue in Terra Linda.

The apartments were designed by Malone and Hooper of San Francisco. They will be built by the Northcrest Investment Co.

In other actions, the commission:

1. Postponed until July 11 action on a request by Graham McPhail for permission to put up 16 feet of fence six feet high in the rear of 70 El Camino Terrace, an R-2 district.

2. Denied a variance permit to Lois Verzuh for permission to park six cars in front of 1615 Fifth Avenue, at F Street, and three in the rear. The commission insisted the area would need space for 11 cars rather than the nine planned.

3. Delayed granting of preliminary architectural approval for an office building for Top Properties, a real estate firm. The structure is to be made by remodeling a residence at the Fifth Avenue address.

4. Granted architectural approval to an addition to the Bergman Manufacturing Co. plant, 632 Irwin Street, at Dubois Street.

5. Approved remodeling of Joe's Restaurant, 931 Fourth Street.

6. Gave architectural approval to the Chinese Kitchen, a take-out restaurant, in a portion of Lot No. 2 of the Commonwealth Light Industrial Subdivision along the Redwood Highway.

7. Gave architectural approval to a three unit apartment building at Elford and C Streets to be built for Mrs. Dallett Rueger.

8. Granted a use permit to Spiliotis & Co. for a 9 by 12 foot sign at 72 Novato Street, southeast of Canal Street, to advertise Everglade Townhouses.

9. Granted a use permit for Aquarium Beautiful at 1409 Fourth Street, to be a pet shop.

10. Denied a use permit for Charles W. Mapes to use the existing sign on the northside of Canal Street at Medway Road to advertise the sale of property.

11. Granted a variance permit to R. E. Nolan for permission for a car deck in front of Prospect Drive and Vinyard Drive.

12. Denied approval for a subdivision of four lots on Coleman Drive, on the grounds of lack of adequate sewer facilities.

13. Granted a variance permit for a detached car port for Theodore Pannier at 44 Blossom Drive near Redding Way and a variance permit to James L. Gilmartin for off-street parking space in front of 33 Coleman Drive east of Prospect Drive.

14. Granted a variance permit for construction of an accessory building by Mel Bacharach at 43 La Crescenta Way.

15. Granted a variance to Spiliotis and Co. for a five and one-half foot setback at Tiburon Street near Francisco Boulevard.

Fourth Death Laid To Curse Of Pharoahs

LONDON (AP)—Another member of the British family said to be marked by the legendary curse of the pharoahs has died an unexpected death, the fourth in the family since 1929.

The death of Lord Westbury was announced today. He died four days ago in Geneva, Switzerland, at the age of 46. The cause of death was not given.

His father, Capt. Richard Bethell, also died suddenly and at the same age.

Bethell had a hand in excavating the tomb of the pharoah, Tutankhamen, in 1923. A curse on a tomb relic said, "Death shall come on swift wings to him that toucheth the tomb of the pharoahs."

Busy 'Revenooer' In Old Carolina

NORTH WILKESBORO, N.C. (AP)—Charlie Felts, 70, who retired after 30 years as a federal revenuer, is credited by some sources with destroying more moonshine liquor stills than any man in the country.

During his long career he compiled this record:

Confiscated five million gallons of mash, 70,000 gallons of illegal whisky which represented some $5.7 million in unpaid federal whisky tax, and arrested 2,500 persons.

Question Has Logic

GREENFIELD, Iowa (AP) — Five-year-old Susan Welcher of Greenfield asked her mother the other day, "How come they call Mrs. Kennedy the First Lady? Grandma read me a Bible story that said Eve was the first lady."

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

(A Thrice-Weekly Column)

By HARRY CRAFT

Marin Couple Back From Orient With Some Comments On Business

Back from a trip to the Far East, representing the home furnishings industry on this year's Pacific Area Business Development Tour are Charles and Viola Bellach, owners of Bellach's Furniture in San Rafael. Reason for the delayed return: They took the long way home through India, Israel, Greece, Italy, France, Denmark, Sweden and England.

Aside from the sociological and goodwill aspects of the tour which might serve as the basis for an article in itself, the Bellachs were able to draw these conclusions on commercial relations with the Orient:

Japan is extending itself as a market and a source of supply. Right now it offers the best opportunities. The country is progressing rapidly in manufacturing initiative and clamping down on the production of inferior merchandise. It will continue to give us more competition, but is amenable to new ideas for fabricating marketable products which will not conflict so much with our own.

THE WEST "missed the boat" in exhibiting at the Tokyo International Trade Fair. All members of the tour agreed that U. S. exhibitors were outclassed in displays and numbers by Iron Curtain countries. Logical Oriental conclusion: Soviet products are superior.

The Bellachs have secured agent representation in Japan, Hong Kong and Sinagpore. They have purchased Oriental pottery and earthenware for lamps, Thailand silks for upholstery, are arranging for Japanese and Malayan furniture adapted to the Western motif and have secured a collection of David Cheng art in Hong Kong (soon to be displayed in their San Rafael store).

"We were so impressed with the possibilities and made so many contacts it may take us months to work out our program," says Charles Bellach. "But the way it looks now we'll eventually be setting up a wholesale division for distribution to other dealers."

BUT IF THE WEST had a meager showing at the Tokyo Trade Fair it's not disinterested in one of its own scheduled for next spring. Western industry is already looking ahead to the Western Age Industries and Engineering Exposition to be held in the San Francisco Cow Palace in April.

The affair is being expanded to include small and medium-size manufacturers in every type of production instead of the usual shows limited to electronics, plant machinery or chemicals.

Endorsed by the 13 western states (including Hawaii and Alaska) it is expected to give government agencies the opportunity to examine and establish buying contacts with hundreds of presently little-known plants and allow large firms to broaden their relations with possible sub-contractor companies.

Host organization will be the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Space reservations and inquiries should be addressed to Lykke-Wilkin and Associates, 681 Market Street, San Francisco.

Judicial Support Given Marin's 'Cycle Reappraisal Program'

Judicial support has been given Marin County's much attacked "cycle reappraisal program" through a decision about San Mateo County by the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco, County Counsel E. Warren McGuire has notified Assessor Bert W. Broemmel.

"Such a program," McGuire said, has been found by the court to be "valid, constitutional and not discriminatory."

Broemmel said that he was not surprised because he had embarked on a cycle program in the first place backed by advice of the county counsel's office which drew on the same precedents as have now been cited by the appeal court.

McGuire wrote that as Broemmel was aware, his office had in the past advised that the cycle program was valid and litigation based on this attitude is now under way. Broemmel's office appraises about one-quarter of Marin County each year under the program.

The new decision, said McGuire, was in the case of Alberts vs. the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County. In validating the cycle principle, the appeal court relied on three cases already used by the Marin County counsel in defending Broemmel's position, plus one supreme court decision.

Reciting the similarity of background between Marin and San Mateo procedures, McGuire gave these facts:

"The assessor of San Mateo County embarked on a reappraisal program of residential properties, reappraised and reassessed residential properties in the southern part of the county and a portion of the northern part of the county while land assessments in the remaining part of the county were not reappraised and reassessed and the assessor placed the new values on the assessment roll as they became available to him.

"The validity of the procedure was challenged by some of the property owners in the area reappraised and reassessed on the basis that it was illegal, unconstitutional and discriminatory, which challenge was rejected by the trial court and reaffirmed by the District Court of Appeal."

Drunken Driver Gets $184 Fine

Herbert Christian Gunzel, 24, of 206 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, was fined $184 Tuesday for drunken driving on Bridgeway Boulevard June 3.

Municipal Judge Harold J. Haley also put Gunzel on six months probation and ordered him not to drive anywhere but to or from work or in connection with work for 90 days.

Parents Review School Math

CINCINNATI (AP)—Some parents of Withrow Junior High School students, protesting that a new approach to mathematics instruction has left them unable to help their youngsters, are finding themselves back in school.

Seventh grade math teacher Donald Smith has set up hour-long classes to help parents become familiar with the new textbook. Written by 100 mathematicians and teachers, it uses such terms as "prime and composite numbers" and "elements."

YOUR VOICE TRAVELS 67 MILES FROM SAN RAFAEL TO SAN JOSE

It's a long distance, but this phone call costs 15% less than Long Distance rates

HERE'S WHY: Although your call from San Rafael to San Jose travels as far as many Long Distance calls, you pay less than Long Distance rates. This call, like most calls to other communities in the Bay Area, is measured in message units. The number of message units depends on how far you call and how long you talk. The message units are combined on your bill instead of each call being itemized. This costs less for bookkeeping, so you pay less for these calls.

If you ever need these calls itemized, for business or any other reason, place them through the Operator as station-to-station calls. The charge will be billed separately at regular long distance rates, without the 15% saving.

Furniture Store Fire in The Mission---$70,000

Fire broke out in Clark's Furniture Store at 2225 Mission street last night, causing an estimated $70,000 damage.

The blaze began in the refinishing room on the ground floor. The first alarm was sounded at 8:15 p. m., the second at 8:30.

Some 400 persons watched 150 men led by Fire Chief William Murray battle the flames in the two-story brick building.

Fireman Frank Connelly of Truck 7 suffered an injury to his eye and was taken to Mission Emergency Hospital.

The store manager, Herbert H. Yamron estimated damage at $70,000. Much of it was caused by smoke and water.

Traffic was tied up at 18th and Mission streets as 15 pieces of equipment were called in to fight the fire.

Novato Citizens Unit Urges 'Western' Plan

Citizen members of a committee studying "beautification" of Novato last night urged that buildings be constructed along "western and rural" lines.

But city planning commissioners and committee members agreed that their desire would be difficult to enforce.

"Maybe people are kidding themselves that this can be done," Howard Schoof, newly appointed planning commissioner, said. "I don't see how it can be done practically."

Committee members headed by Phyllis Stewart discussed their ideas with the commission as one of eight citizen groups studying all aspects of the city in preparation for a city master plan.

Commission members noted that the city does not have an excavation policy which might stop scarring of hillsides by unnecessary excavation or would require contouring and replanting to prevent "just gouging out a big scar and leaving it that way," as committee member Jack Burgi put it.

Also lacking is an ordinance against littering and dumping in unapproved areas of the city. Committee member E. D. King is expected to appear before the city council at its July 11 session to suggest an ordinance patterned after the county one "which has teeth in it," King said.

Committee members and members of the planning staff went on to indicate that ultimately the city will need a tree planting master plan and city department to maintain trees; that subdividers might be required to plant trees; that business signs should be limited to telling the business, not advertising the product; that an architectural advisory committee of laymen and architects might aid in keeping the design generally "rural."

Bolinas May Have Principal If He Can Find A Home

The Bolinas-Stinson School district has a new principal provided it can find a place for him and his family to live.

Trustees of the district announced at an interim board meeting last night they have agreed to hire Robert F. Morris of Crescent City. Morris, introduced to the board, agreed to take the position on the contingency he finds a place to live. He said he has been looking but without success.

Morris will have the position of principal of both schools and will teach seventh and eighth grades at Bolinas. His salary is $7,400, and he is to start as of Saturday.

Morris, 43, will replace Richard Miller, who left to become vice principal of Summerville High School in Tuolomne.

For the past four years Morris was principal of Pine Grove Flementary School in Crescent Union School District, Crescent City. Prior to that he taught seventh grade and special classes in Sacramento.

He is married and has three children.

Last Minute Breakdown

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. (AP)—The car driven by William Theis purred fine all the way to Florida and back—almost.

Theis called a tow truck to pull the auto the final 10 feet.

Education Board Seeks Bids On Heating System

The San Rafael High School Board of Education soon will call for bids on a $12,000 revision of a heating system in the Home Arts Building at San Rafael High School.

The board entered into contract with Robert Ritter Tuesday for the preparation of plans. The contract will be awarded in July.

The board also called for bids on the final stage of a roof replacement program at San Rafael High School which was started four years ago.

Cost of the final project is estimated at $3,000. Bids for the roof job will be opened July 14 at the district offices.

A FAREWELL SALUTE

President John F. Kennedy applauded Air Force Gen. Thomas D. White and got a salute in return at the conclusion of a White House ceremony yesterday at which the General Thomas D. The trophy will be given annually for Air Force achievements in space. (AP Wirephoto)

Space Flight By Sheppard Downgraded

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Navy Commander Alan Sheppard's acclaimed rocket ride down the Atlantic two months ago "wasn't anything compared to the Russian flight" around the world by the Soviet's Yuri Gagarin.

That's the opinion of Robert B. Parks of Pasadena, chief of the U.S. Interplanetary Space Program for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

"All Sheppard did was control the rocket's altitude. He had no control over where it was going," Parks told a meeting of the American Rocket Society's Sacramento chapter last night.

"The control he had wasn't significant at all" while Gagarin "easily could have steered the world's first globe-encircling space craft."

Parks said he was also convinced that the Russians will land on Venus and Mars before U.S. astronauts make the trip around 1985.

He said the U.S. should have a man on the moon by 1970 but that it would take another 15 years to get a spaceman to Venus or Mars, the closest planets. Parks added there will be only 10 chances for Venus and seven for Mars between 1964 and 1985.

"And I am convinced the Russians won't miss many of those opportunities," he said.

County Road Inaction Ripped

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council last night unanimously voted "to take some action" to stop the Board of Supervisors "political juggling of a vital highway project due to sloppy legislative action at the county level which is hurting the Tiburon Peninsula."

The action referred to the delay in widening Tiburon highway because of the supervisors not allocating funds to provide for reconstruction of the Bel Aire drainage channel after completion of the highway.

The state, which has removed houses from nine lots in the highway condemned area, will not complete widening until drainage arrangements are agreed to by the Board of Supervisors. According to Gilbert B. Darroch's report, the county wants to wait on its arrangement until after the highway is widened, resulting in a stalemate.

Twelve member representatives were present out of 19.

The first German settlers in America arrived at Philadelphia in 1683.

Principal Claims Traditional Schooling Blunts Curiosity

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — "Youngsters come to us in the first grade full of curiosity and wonder . . . in almost no time at all we manage to blunt the mechanism of curiosity which is the very thing we should nourish and develop."

B. Frank Brown, principal of the Melbourne, Fla., High School, levelled that charge at the traditional American elementary school today.

In an address to the National Education Assn's 99th annual convention, Brown wheeled out his heaviest ammunition for an attack on the self-contained classroom, in which one teacher has the same pupils for the entire day.

Brown said educators aren't facing up to the fact that in such a classroom the mental age might differ by as much as six years between the brightest and slowest, although all the children are of the same chronological age.

He said 25 to 30 pupils is usually considered the ideal class size, although it is really too large for small group discussions and unnecessarily small for lectures and demonstrations.

Brown is principal of the nation's only nongraded high school, where formal grade barriers between the 10th, 11th and 12th grades have been swept away and students are encouraged to get as far and as fast as they can.

He suggested that high schools be reorganized so students spend 40 per cent of their time in lectures, 20 per cent in small group discussion of 12-15 students and 40 per cent in independent study and research.

"This country is run by decisions that are made in small groups," he said. "Youngsters must have practice in making decision and thinking with others. They must learn to fire at any target that moves."

A MAY-DECEMBER ROMANCE

Love has come to Lonnie Efton Stewart, a divorced 64-year-old carpenter of Long Beach, in the person of Barbara Gail Gillette, 18, and a divorcee herself. The happy couple is shown here as they posed yesterday—celebrating their first week's anniversary. They were married with the consent of the bride's parents, and have now moved in with them. The new Mrs. Stewart said she married a member of the armed forces when she was 15, but "when he went overseas he got divorced." Stewart divorced his wife seven years ago. (AP Wirephoto)

President's Peace Agency Bill Introduced In House

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON—Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) today co-sponsored introduction in the House of the Administration's bill for establishment of a U.S. Disarmament Agency for World Peace and Security.

The action followed a meeting yesterday at the White House in which Miller and 16 other members of Congress met with President Kennedy; Sen. Hubert Humphreys (D-Minnesota), sponsor of the bill in the Senate; John J. McCloy, the President's special adviser on disarmament; and George Bundy of the White House staff. Miller was the only Californian in the group.

The legislation is designed to "strengthen and broaden U.S. arms controll efforts," Miller said.

The new agency would have far-reaching responsibilities for basic research on arms control, testing and inspection, as well as economic consequences of disarmament.

The bill contemplates that planning of U.S. participation in any agreed-upon inspection and control system would be done by the new agency.

Its director would report directly to the President and serve as the President's principal adviser on arms control matters. He would conduct arms control negotiations under the direction of the President and the Secretary of State.

The agency would also have broad powers to conduct research to provide scientific backup for such negotiations.

Last October, former President Eisenhower set up a disarmament administration within the State Department. Kennedy's bill would "expand and strengthen" this.

During his 1960 campaign, Kennedy criticized the Eisenhower administration for assigning too few experts to disarmament matters. Officials said there are now 85 such personnel, and the new agency would increase this total to between 200 and 250 as a starter.

The agency would have its own budget, but officials were uncertain how much it would be. One educated guess was that the initial sum would be six to seven million dollars, compared with the $800,000 allotted the existing disarmament office in the current fiscal year.

Miller said the President "emphasized that the lack of scientific backup and other research have left our negotiators ill prepared to hammer out solutions to arms control problems."

The 17 congressmen at the meeting were co-sponsors of the National Peace Agency legislation introduced last session.

"We are well satisfied that the President's bill meets the basic objectives of our earlier bills," Miller concluded.

Big Producer Of Milk Stuffs

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—Ever wonder how much milk a cow produces?

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced a production record by a 5-year-old Holstein in this western Pennsylvania area. The Holstein, owned by McChesney Brothers, produced 18,073 pounds of milk and 750 pounds of butter fat in 324 days. It was milked twice daily.

That Wild Middle East

BEIRUT (UPI) — The East can be just as wild as the Wild West.

As the freight train lumbered to a halt at Station 31 on the Lebanese-Syrian border, a band of masked raiders mounted on horses and armed with rifles climbed aboard. The engineer told investigating police that the masked men tied up the trainmen and passengers and, waving their rifles, rode off with the train's cargo of sheep and goats.

Hard One To Answer

'Harmonize' Planning, Marin Mayors Urged

Mrs. Mary Summers, Marin County planning director, last night told the Marin Council of Mayors the county needs a master plan that "will harmonize with all the cities' plans."

She also declared that there should be a professional county-sponsored planning staff that would be large enough to be utilized by both city and county governments.

Mrs. Summers spoke after a dinner at the Alta Mira Hotel, Sausalito.

She said that with a county master plan that was in harmony with all the cities' master plans, civic leaders "could sit down and say this is our government's goal. This is what we want as a county and city together."

She said she did not see how "any city could move without a day-to-day paid planning staff."

Host Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. of Sausalito asked, "What if a city can't afford one?"

"A city can't afford not to have one," replied Mrs. Summers.

"I agree," said Ehrlich, "It was a rhetorical question."

She explained that a planning staff can pay for its salary a hundred times over. She cited an example of a two-million-dollar saving by the county's staff. She credited it with locating new buildings out of proposed state highway routes, particularly Highway 101. She said that too many cities will allow structures to be built as obstacles to proposed routes, then turn around in a few years and have to buy back the same structures to make way for the route, at a great loss to taxpayers.

She stressed that a "day-to-day" staff can stay aware of these "processes of people and land."

Mayor John F. McInnis asked her opinion about a recent criticism by San Francisco Councilman A. Phillip Burton of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s reluctance to keep its wiring underground in new construction projects.

Mrs. Summers asserted that the PG&E and a nation of brilliant scientists have failed "miserably to find a way" to provide power without using unsightly poles and wires. She explained that the great problem was the cost of putting wires underground.

She said she has had people look at a new, average built home and express how much nicer it looked than other homes like it.

"You know what the difference was? It was that the wires near that home were underground and the unsightly poles were gone—and that was the only difference, but what a difference," said Mrs. Summers.

Almonte Sanitary Budget Meeting

Directors of the Almonte Sanitary District will hold an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. today to adopt a final 1961-62 budget.

The board discussed the budget Monday. It also met with six Shoreline Highway property owners to try to iron out problems over the owners' request for sewer facilities. Disagreeing as to standards of the project, director Valerian Skrylov said, the subject is to be discussed again soon.

Skrylov also said directors Homer E. Winfield, chairman, Patrick Price and he, expressed displeasure that abatment notices by the County Health Department while negotiations are in process. The owners at present have septic tanks.

Novelist Turns To The Theater

NEW YORK (AP) — Novelist Mary O'Hara is turning her attention to the theater as author, composer and lyricist of "Oh! Wyoming!"

NEW BUS FOR THE HANDICAPPED

Little Mary Catherine Taylor, 5, of Mill Valley jumps into driver's seat and happily grabs keys to new school bus donated yesterday to the Marin Aid to Retarded Children. Rejoicing with her are (from left) San Rafael Councilman David Menary Jr., Mrs. Philip Lemler, president of MARC, and Dante Bagnani, chairman of United Commercial Travelers of San Francisco, which donated the small foreign-made bus. Councilman Menary represented Mayor John F. McInnis at the brief ceremony held in front of the city hall yesterday.

SAUSALITO

Sausalito Yacht Club Proposes Breakwater

The Sausalito Yacht Club proposed a breakwater to be built outboard of the club, to include a public promenade upon it, at a hearing last night on the central waterfront plan before the Sausalito Planning Commission.

John E. Koenig Jr., chairman of the waterfront committee for the club, said the breakwater would be at the height of the club's deck and would be used to berth about 75 boats.

Koenig also proposed to the commission that El Portal Street be extended to loop around in front of the club to connect with Railroad and Humboldt avenues. In the proposals, on schematic proposals, with drawings, the club asked that parking in the central area remain as it is now.

In a separate report, Russell H. Papenhausen, president of the chamber of commerce, asked that more parking be provided for the merchants.

He suggested turning Park Street, which borders Vina Del Mar Plaza, into parking. The chamber also suggests a park on city property at the south end of the Sandspit which would add more parking. This plan is similar to the majority report of the citizens central waterfront plan committee.

Five letters were read to the commission favoring the Charles E. Finney report on the plan which suggests that the central area be predominantly park. Some of the writers favored a full or part time professional planner for the city. Letters were from Mrs. Denise Fleig, Marian Gualco, Marilyn and David Diamond, Neil Davis and the Sausalito Citizens Council.

Four Day Holiday At Some Schools

It's not a long week end for the elementary school children, but it is a four day vacation for the high school students in Central Marin County.

Elementary students attending summer school in the Kentfield and Larkspur elementary schools will have school Monday, July 3. Tuesday of course, is a holiday.

Students attending the three high schools in the Tamalpais Union High School District, will not have school on either Monday or Tuesday.

Cuban Given 20-Year Term For Death Of Girl In N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — Francisco (The Hook) Molina, a former soldier in Fidel Castro's Cuban army, was sentenced to 20 years to life today in the death of a girl caught in gunfire between Cuban factions. Castro has sought to trade a leader of the recent invasion for Molina.

Molina was convicted of second-degree murder in the killing of Magdalena Urdaneta, 9, a Venezuelan girl who was vacationing here with her parents.

The family was sitting in a West Side restaurant when gunfire broke out between pro- and anti-Castro groups. This occurred last year while Castro was in New York.

Molina, 28, got his nickname of "The Hook" because he has an artifical hand, which replaces a member lost in an industrial accident.

College Trustees Budget Meeting

Discussion of the 1961-62 budget for the College of Marin will be the main item on the agenda at a meeting of the board of trustees of the college at 8 p.m. tonight in Room 61 in the art building.

Other items scheduled or discussion by the board include:

Hiring one teacher and accepting a resignation of another and a report by the college architect on plans for the athletic field.

Supervisors Approve Appointments For 10

Ten appointments cleared by the supervisors' finance committee were approved by the full board Tuesday.

They included one which had slipped by Supervisor J. Walter Blair, finance committee chairman, as he ruefully admitted—appointment as of July 1 of Bertha Montoro as deputy probation officer at $461, to succeed June Bulman when Mrs. Bulman quits a month later.

Blair vehemently opposed the one-month overlap when this matter originally came up June 19 though Probation Officer Walter Busher insisted the complexity of the case-load made a training period necessary. Yesterday when Blair belatedly recognized the situation, his finance colleague George Ludy grinned "Our rubber stamp is on it and we can't take it off."

The board approved appointment of George Louis Stephen Emmons as director of county school business services at $807, taking over from Dr. R. S. Kupfer, who has joined the County School Service Fund. A quarter of Emmons' pay will be from state and school district money.

Another school position filled was through appointment of Harry Hiruo as accountant at $483.

Dr. Richard W. Wolk was named deputy county physician at a flat rate of $300, replacing Dr. Leo Wagner, whose promotion to county physician-internist at $375 was also approved.

Other appointments were:

William M. Kilcoyne to be janitor foreman in the Department of Public Works at $401.

Elizabeth Bahr to be registered nurse at the county hospital and farm at $366, plus three practical nurses: Edyth Petersen and Constantina Gavallos at $280, and Mabel Bremeton at $293.

Theresa Barkhurst to be senior stenographer clerk for the Planning Commission at $366.

The broadcasts are scheduled for Saturday at 12:15 p.m. and 6 p.m., Sunday at 6 p.m., and Monday and Tuesday at 12:30 p.m.

Bolinas-Stinson School District Approves Budget

Bolinas-Stinson Beach School District trustees of the interim board last night adopted a preliminary 1961-62 budget of $78,449, the first combined budget of the newly combined district.

The budget will be sent to the office of the superintendent of schools for approval.

The figure includes $20,000 in a capital outlay fund which is proposed to be used, Chairman Arthur E. Carpenter said, for construction of new restroom facilities at Bolinas School.

Last year's budget for Stinson Beach was $27,161 and for Bolinas approximately $30,000.

The board contemplates a tax rate of $1.16 per $100 assessed valuation with 6 cents override, bringing the total tax rate to $1.22.

First Home Started At Drake's Bay Estates

Cement was poured yesterday for the first home to be built at Drake's Bay — nearly four centuries after the spectacular bay was discovered by Sir Francis Drake in 1579.

The homebuilding is the first stage in a large recreational development which is planned to include a small boat harbor and a beach club. Start of construction culminates years of planning, says Benjamin P. Bonelli, attorney for the developers, Drake's Beach Estates, Inc. He said it will "harmonize" with whatever plan may finally be adopted by the Federal Government for a National Seashore area.

The home is being built for Charles E. Cody of San Rafael. It is the first of some 55 homes to be built on lots already purchased by individuals on a hillside overlooking the bay and Limantour Spit, the first subdivision of Drake's Bay Estates.

Paving work started this week on seven miles of access road as well as roads within the estates. A second subdivision map has been approved, according to Bonelli, and homesites are now being sold on the beach and on Limantour Spit.

President Sings For New Students

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP)—New students seldom know quite what to expect when the president of Muskingum College, Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, declares he is ready to sing a solo.

The annual event takes place during the week first-year students arrive to begin college life, and it's designed to put them at ease. After a few deceptive classical notes by the pianist, Montgomery launches into: "Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey."

When pressed for another solo, he sings it over again.

Family Solves Light Mystery

TRENTON, Mo. (AP) — About dusk each evening a farm family noticed a light was on in the barn.

Each member of the family accused the other of turning it on. Each denied it.

The guilty party turned out to be the family goat. It chewed on a string which was attached to a pull chain light fixture.

Hazard Of Times

CHATTANOOGA (AP)—Nature won a battle with the electronic age during a heavy windstorm here. At a downtown hotel, visitors had to come and go when the gusts died down. That's the only time the electric eye could open the automatic door.

School Pay Scale Mulled In Larkspur

Principals in the Larkspur Elementary School District have been placed on a salary schedule for increases by the board of trustees of the district.

The new six-step sliding scale for the principals starts at $9,000 per year and advances at the rate of $300 per year with $10,000 as the maximum.

The board decided Tuesday that if a principal from outside the district is hired he will be allowed five steps for previous experience if he has that much experience.

The board also changed the credit for out of state teachers. In the past, it has allowed only one year credit for that teaching experience. Now it will be possible for teachers from other states to start in the Larkspur district with three years credit for their past experience, if it is that much or more.

'Eighty Dances' Theme For Annual Folk Fete

"Around the World in Eighty Dances" is the theme of the annual folk dance festival of the Marin Dance Council, Inc., Sunday, July 9, at the College of Marin.

Two large balloons will mark the location of the program starting at 1:30 p.m. on the football field. The evening portion of the festival will be held in the San Rafael High School gymnasium at 7:30.

The festival features old ethnic dances adapted to the recorded music. Activities include performances by nonprofessional dance groups.

The four groups appearing in the afternoon include the Marin Junior Dancers, a group of youngsters under 12 years of age who are instructed by Joe and Marie Angeli. They meet Monday evenings at Fairfax School.

Other groups performing in the afternoon will be the Terpsichoreans, one of the oldest exhibition groups from San Francisco; the Pantalettes, a teen-age group from Oakland, and the Monterey Peninsula Workshop Dancers, newcomers this year.

Callers for the afternoon square dances will be Sue Lemmon, Vallejo folk dance teacher; Stan Valentine, Martinez caller, and Harlan Beard, San Francisco recreation department teacher.

Dance groups performing in the evening include the Oakland Recreation Dance Arts, the Ansambl Narodnich Igraca Sokoli (specializing in Balkan dances), Chang's International Folk Dancers, and the Chinese Dance Group of San Francisco.

Evening callers will be Ursula Mooney of San Anselmo and Vic Wintheiser of Oakland.

Some of the groups planning this year's festival include the Novato Folk Dancers, Marin Whirl-Aways, Step-Togethers of Marin, the Hardly Ables, and the Southern Marin Folk Dancers.

LONG TIE TO BE REPLAYED

Giant Send 'Problem Boys' Jones, Loes Against Phils

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants and the Philadelphia Phils played the longest night game in major league history last night—and had to settle for a tie.

After the two teams had battled five hours and 11 minutes, the Giants appeared to be on the verge of victory in the 15th inning. However, catcher Hobie Landrith virtually threw the victory away.

The San Francisco team scored three runs in the top of the 15th, but the Phils came back with two and had men on first and third with two away. At that point, Landrith missed Mike McCormick on a routine return throw to the mound—and Tony Gonzales came in from third with the tying run.

McCormick retired the next batter, and the game was called because of curfew. It not only set a night record, but came within eight minutes of setting an all-time record for any major league game ever played.

DOUBLE-HEADER

The contest will be replayed tonight as part of a twi-night doubleheader. The Giants will send Sam Jones (5-5) and Billy Loes (4-5), a pair of unsteady starters in recent weeks, against young Art Mahaffey (7-7) and Ken Lehman (1-0).

Although last night's game doesn't count, the records do—and they ran into pretty large figures. The Giants used 18 players, and the Phils used 20.

Orlando Cepeda had five hits in seven trips to the plate, and Harvey Kuenn had four for eight with a double. Jose Pagan went three for five, including a homer.

Willie Mays, who has been moving up among the leaders in the National League batting race, would have preferred if the records had been forgotten with the game. He had only one hit in seven trips to the plate.

Manager Alvin Dark called on plenty of pitching talent in an effort to gain ground on both league-leading Cincinnati and second-place Los Angeles. The Reds dropped a doubleheader to Chicago, and Pittsburgh defeated the Dodgers.

Rookie pitcher Dick Lemay went nine innings in a bid for his second victory, striking out 11, walking four and allowing just nine hits. He was followed to the mound by Stu Miller, Billy O'Dell, Jack Sanford and McCormick.

It was a see-saw battle all the way. Philadelphia scored first in the second inning, the Giants got two runs to go ahead in the fifth—and the Phils came back to tie it up in the same frame.

From that point, they matched run for run. Both teams got a run in the sixth, another in the 13th and three in the 15th.

Don Demeter and Charlie Smith were the big guns for Philadelphia. Demeter went four for seven and scored three runs, while Smith had three hits in six trips to the plate.

San Francisco now trails Cincinnati by four games and the Dodgers by one and a half. The Giants hold a three-game margin over fourth-place Pittsburgh.

San Rafael '9' Bows In Tourney Prelim

The San Rafael Merchants won and lost last night at their home park, Albert Field.

On the field the Merchants bowed to the Giant Rookies of San Francisco by a 7-4 count. But at the gate the San Rafael club picked up $127.50 in receipts to help pay the freight during the 1961 season. The game was for their benefit to help pay for uniforms and other equipment.

Last night's game also served as a warmup for San Rafael's entry in the California State Semi-Pro Tournament which opens at Albert Field tomorrow night. The Merchants, newest Marin team, draws the assignment of officially opening the tourney against the San Francisco Misracks at 8 o'clock tomorrow.

FOUR PITCHERS

Manager Al Endriss isn't sure of his starting pitcher for the tourney opener. Last night he used four hillsman, starting with Lou Profumo for two shakey innings and followed by Dave Blasquez, Jack Sovereign and Ken Kimball.

Profumo gave up three runs in the first two frames and was charged with the defeat; Blasquez went the third and fourth undamaged; high school star Jack Sovereign pitched the fifth, sixth and part of the seventh, giving up four runs and Kimball finished out through the ninth.

The foursome teamed up to strike out 14 Giants. Profumo whiffed four, Blasquez five, Sovereign two and Kimball three. They were nicked for 10 hits, including two each by Giants Rich Jeffries, Bill Gallagher, Roy Rietz and Don Murray. Gallagher and Murray each had a double.

TWO FOR JOSES

For San Rafael, Steve Joses led the seven-hit attack with a pair of singles while Don Lauters picked up the only extra base blow, a double that drove in a run. Others with a RBI were Kimball, catcher Lu Haas and infielder Rich Curry.

Rickey In Good Spirits; He'll Pull Through

SUDBURY, Ont. (UPI)—Branch Rickey was in "good spirits" today although he has been advised he must remain hospitalized for at least three weeks because of a heart attack.

The condition of the 79-year-old baseball executive was described as "satisfactory" by doctors at Sudbury Memorial Hospital. However, Rickey was being kept in an oxygen tent as a routine procedure to take the load off his heart.

Rickey was flown to the hospital Tuesday hours after he was stricken while vacationing at Manitoulin Island, 95 miles away. He had a previous heart attack in March, 1959.

Dr. John Sturtridge, Rickey's personal physician, predicted that "Branch will pull through all right."

"He's made of good stuff," Dr. Sturtridge added. "You can't get that fellow quiet."

Lindsay Wolfe, a son-in-law of Rickey, shared the doctor's optimism.

Wolfe said that Rickey "had a good night and is in very good spirits."

Lavorante 3-1 Choice Over Ratliff Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Monroe Ratliff of Los Angeles, a 3-to-1 underdog for his heavyweight fight tonight against Alejandro Lavorante of Argentina, says he doesn't expect to be merely a stepping stone for the young slugger.

"I figure I can show this kid a thing or two," says Ratliff. "I've seen him on television. He's never seen me. That's an advantage for me."

The 23-year-old Lavorante, winner of 13 of his 14 professional fights, knocked out Zora Folley last month.

"I fought Folley twice," said Ratliff, "and I know Lavorante can punch if he could take Folley out, but we've got a few ideas too."

Jake Shugrue, Ratliff's manager, says, "Monroe won't make the same mistake the others did when they stood up straight with Alejandro. Monroe will stay low and keep moving. We're not offering any bombing targets."

Pinky George, Lavorante's manager, already is booming Alejandro as the heavyweight to watch. Lavorante is confident, but not cocky.

"I've got a lot to learn," the handsome 206-pounder admits, "but I think I learn something every time I fight."

The main Lavorante weakness, according to veteran fight observers, is inexperience in close. He's sensational with the big punch.

That seems to set the stage for the 10-rounder at Civic Auditorium: the new young slugger versus the guy who is supposed to be Victim No. 14.

The card, promoted by Bennie Ford of San Anselmo, starts at 8:30. Four other preliminaries are scheduled.

Singleton Stops Tacoma's Giants

SEATTLE (UPI)—Veteran Elmer Singleton stopped the Tacoma Giants on four hits last night to give the Seattle Rainiers a 5-2 Pacific Coast League victory before 3,086 fans.

The Seattle victory halted a three-game losing streak and increased the Rainiers' league lead over the second-place Giants to two full games.

N.Y. Attorney Nabbed As Basketball 'Fixer'

NEW YORK (AP)—Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan today announced the arrest of Charles Tucker, 25, an attorney from Yonkers, 25, an attorney from Yonkers, N.Y., as a basketball fixer.

Tucker, a former college basketball player at Kalamazoo, Mich., College in 1955 and 1956, was booked on charges of conspiracy and bribery.

Tucker was the ninth man arrested as a basketball fixer in the ever-widening scandal. He has law offices in midtown New York.

The scandal already has involved 36 players from 21 colleges, covering 44 games.

Hogan said Tucker offered $1,000 to Peter Kelly, University of Connecticut captain, to shave points in a game with Holy Cross played Feb. 18 at Storrs, Conn. Kelly of Orlando, Fla. had been named previously in the investigations. Hogan said Tucker called off the deal at the last minute because things were "too hot."

Vallejo High Star Signs With Mets

VALLEJO (AP) — Henry McGraw, 18, a Vallejo High catcher-infielder who this year had a batting average of .471, was signed by the New York Mets of the National Baseball League yesterday.

He will be assigned to the Lexington, Ky., club of the Class D Carolina League.

Angels Grab Another High School Standout

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels grabbed another high school bonus plum today when they signed 17-year-old Jacke Warner of nearby El Monte for an unannounced figure.

Warner, a pitcher-outfielder, will report to Dallas-Fort Worth of the American Assn. next spring.

L. A.'s Drysdale Flops Again; Lowly Cubs Humiliate Reds

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

If you think the Los Angeles Dodgers are sittin' pretty, just off the pace in that National League race, figure where they'd be if Don Drysdale was winning the way he was expected to win.

Big Don has been the big flop while the Dodgers have hung close to the top. The lanky righthander, who never has come up with the 20 victories expected of him each spring, is no better than 5-5 at the moment — and he hasn't beaten a first division club in seven tries.

The young veteran missed again last night, failing to last three innings at Pittsburgh as the fourth place Pirates whipped Los Angeles 9-3. That kept the second place Dodgers from picking up more than a half-game on Cincinnati and the Reds came off with a 2½-game lead despite dropping a doubleheader to the Chicago Cubs 16-5 and 7-2.

Third place San Francisco four times blew leads and wound up with a 7-7, 15-inning tie at Philadelphia in the longest night game (5 hours, 11 minutes) in major league history. Milwaukee moved over .500 for the first time since Memorial Day by slugging St. Louis 8-3.

DODGER NEMESIS

Southpaw Joe Gibbon (6-3) beat the Dodgers for the third time in three decisions. He struck out seven, walked but one and allowed six hits, two of them solo homers by Frank Howard and Daryl Spencer.

The Cubs collected 25 hits, 12 for extra bases including five home runs, while beating Bob Purkey (9-4) and Jim O'Toole (6-7). Ron Santo, after going hitless in 14 trips, drove in seven runs, five with two homers, in the first game behind winning righthander Glen Hobbie (5-9).

Southpaw rookie Jack Curtis (4-2) then held the Reds to four hits in the nightcap as the Cubs made it seven out of 11 against Cincinnati this season.

BRAVE SWEEP

Milwaukee stayed within one game of fourth place Pittsburgh as the Braves put away their eighth victory in 10 games with a three-game sweep at St. Louis. They scored three unearned runs in the second inning against loser Bob Gibson (5-5), then piled up four runs on homers by Joe Adcock and Frank Thomas in the third and fifth innings. Rookie Bob Hendley, a southpaw, won his first, but needed relief help when the Cards scored their three in the eighth inning.

LEADING HITTER IN MAJORS

Closeup of Detroit first baseman Norm Cash shows the grip he uses to club out the .375 batting average he currently sports. He has hit 24 home runs and driven in 66 runs, leads both major leagues in batting and is one of the big reasons the Tigers are leading the American League standings. (AP Wirephoto)

NOT ENOUGH STRETCH — Tony Taylor of Phillies is out diving into second base as he failed to stretch his first inning single to left field in game against Giants last night. Making the tag is shortstop Eddie Bressoud. Teams battled to 7-7 tie in record 5 hour, 11 minute game. Story on page 21. (AP Wirephoto)

No report has been received for several days from yachts Farida and Mariachi. The Good News reported some rain squalls and heavy seas.

Witt Escapes Upset Spree In Nat'l Tennis; Dick Stockton Gains Finals

Top-seeded Reed Witt of Larkspur was still in the National Junior Hardcourt Tennis Championships today, but many other high-seeded players have been ousted in a number of upsets.

Witt dispatched Randy Myers of El Monte 6-1, 6-0 yesterday in the Boys 18 play at Burlingame's Peninsula Tennis Club.

In the same division, Harvey Klyce of San Rafael also kept his hopes alive by eliminating Gordon Baumbacher, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6.

In younger divisions the Stockton brothers of San Rafael won three of four matches in which they participated.

Ten-year-old Dickie Stockton battled his way into the finals of the Boy 11 division with an easy 6-1, 6-0 rout of Rick Ellsworth. Dickie was to duel Erik Van Dillen for the title today in what shaped up as a great battle. The San Rafael youngster also remained in the running for the Boys 13 title as he advanced through another round yesterday with a 6-1, 6-1 edge over Craig Rieser of Orinda.

John Stockton, however, met his downfall in that 13 age division as he bowed to Bob Miller, 6-0, 6-2.

The third Stockton, Steve, advanced in the Boys 15 division with a 6-1, 6-0 decision over Robert Delantoni. In the same division Larkspur's Hillard Witt was shutout by Steve Tidball, 6-0, 6-0.

Another Marin County victim was Robin Pritzker of Mill Valley who bowed to Rosemary Casals, 6-0, 6-0 in the Girls 13 group.

Officer Assigned

Following China service, Capt. William A. Weston has been assigned to the Presidio, San Francisco. His wife, Mrs. Doris Weston, lives at 814 Descanso Way, San Rafael.

Two New Directors Named For Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Robert A. Lurie and William H. Taylor, both San Francisco residents, were named to the San Francisco Giants board of directors yesterday.

The vacancies were created by the death of Charles A. Aufderher of New York and the resignation of Donald F. Grant, who has become chairman of the New York Mets National League Club.

Lurie, 42, is vice president of a San Francisco real estate company. Taylor, 54, is a retired businessman who became a Giants stockholder after the move to the west coast in 1958.

Summer Signups

Second registration for the Mill Valley summer recreation program will be held Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Park School for those who did not register for golf, tennis and recorder programs, recreation director Ronald C. Samet said today. No additional fee will be charged for being late.

Crawford, Arnold Win Upsets At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) —Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif., upset third-seeded Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy today, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, to reach the fourth round of men's singles in the Wimbledon Tennis Tournament.

Mimi Arnold of Santa Rosa, Calif., sprang a similar upset in the second round of the women's division when she eliminated fourth-seeded Lesley Turner of Australia, 7-5, 6-4.

Crawford was the first of eight Americans to complete his third-round match. The men's field was to be cut to 16 survivors by nightfall.

Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., former Stanford quarterback, was knocked out in the third round when he was defeated by Roy Emerson of Australia, seeded fourth in the tournament, 6-3, 6-0, 5-7, 6-4.

An American girl was eliminated in the second round as Yola Ramirez of Mexico completed an 11-9, 6-1, 6-2 victory over Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach. Their match had been suspended by darkness yesterday following the second set.

Miss Arnold was the third United States entry to reach the third round of women's singles play. Karen Hantze of Chula Vista, Calif., and Justina Bricka of St. Louis won second-round matches yesterday.

Baseball Honors Honest Man In Black Sox Scandal

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The former major league pitcher who upheld baseball's honor during the 1919 "Black Sox" scandal, Dickie Kerr, received a silver tray from baseball Commissioner Ford Frick Wednesday night.

The presentation came during the American Association Houston-Indianapolis baseball game.

"To Dickie Kerr, a great baseball hero," the message on the tray read.

Kerr won two games during the 1919 series between the Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati. It later developed some of his teammates had been paid to lose.

Frick said Kerr is "a man of integrity and honor" and said baseball owes him an eternal debt.

Yogi Berra First Catcher To Reach 2,000-Hit Mark

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Lawrence (Yogi) Berra, the St. Louis-born New York Yankee veteran, last night became the first catcher in major league baseball history to get 2,000 hits in a career.

Berra is playing the outfield now, but he has spent the greater part of his 16-year career behind the plate.

He got a single in the fourth inning against the Los Angeles Angels.

Only 102 other men in major league history have reached the 2,000-hit plateau and only six Yankees have done it. Previous Yankees to reach the mark were Willie Keeler, 2,955; Babe Ruth, 2,873; Lou Gehrig, 2,731; Joe DiMaggio, 2,214; and John Mize, 2,011.

Beg, Borrow Or Steal A Ticket To All-Star Classic If You Can

CONNOLLY

If by any chance you've been figuring on passing up the All-Star game at Candlestick Park July 11—take my tip and get busy, even if you have to sit in the bleachers.

Next time an All-Star game will be played in San Francisco will be in 1972. And believe me, brothers and sisters, that's a long way off.

Nothing of such monumental proportions has ever been served to San Franciscans and northern Californians than the All-Star game. It brings together the greatest players in both the American League and in the National League.

And it is great because the players themselves pick the players who are to compete in the classic.

So if by any chance you can beg, borrow or steal a ticket for the All-Star game, do it. Get the ticket and get into the park.

You'll see the guys in the American League you read about; you'll see the best players, picked by the players themselves—so what else need be said?

The park may be packed, but it will be worth your while and take a tip from the old observer and don't miss it.

A LOT of folks wonder how it is that Willie Mays, baseball's greatest performer, has not been received 100 per cent by the S.F. fans.

I'll let you in on a secret. The reason is that the Giants allowed Willie to write exclusively for a S.F. paper at the expense of the other papers.

Seems kind of silly, doesn't it? But that is the truth.

Alvin Dark is getting into the same fix as Willie, only in a different way. He is selling himself and his opinions to legitimate sponsors.

And sometimes Alvin may be a bit enthusiastic and say some nice things about a certain player. And for that he is given a real boot in the trousers.

It is my esteemed opinion that managing a ball club in the National League should afford a manager enough money without selling himself on the air. I could be wrong and I mean no offense for the enterprise shown by the sponsors for the Alvin Dark Show. But I still believe Dark is better off saving his comments and his remarks for the newspapers.

Habit might be a terrible thing. But I still think newspapers are the pulse of the public.

The FISHIN' FOOL

I-J Fish and Game Writer

Angling Action Tough To Figure; Mystery Fish Caught At Tomales

STEVENS

I hesitate a wee bit about prognosticating fishing chances for the few days following the printing of this column. It is being written on Tuesday afternoon. The wind is blowing and fishing is at best slow and spotty. Not much better than it has been for the last few days.

Over the weekend the local activity was certainly not such as to make a fellow grab his rod and hie himself to the deeps for salmon, the shoreline or the Tomales Bay for halibut nor the inside waters for stripers. The unpredictable halibut took a holiday, only a few sticking around to be caught; the salmon went on a no-bite strike and even the stripers laid off to rest. The back country bassing was nonexistent and most of the usual trout spots failed to do anything spectacular. The one bright streak in the dark skies of fishing appeared in the Monterey Bay, but more about that later.

I AM now concerned with a mystery. One of my faithful readers, John Gullak, read the recent optimistic column anent the run of halibut and hurried to Tomales Bay to get his share of the flatties. He caught no halibut — saw none caught, either—but he caught a fish that has become a piscatorial puzzle. A finny what-is-it. Large, 30 or 40 pounds; had wings similar to a sting ray, a blunt nose and a definite shark's tail. John called me to ask the name of it. I couldn't visualize such a beast and told him so. He called the ichthyologists in S.F. and it didn't register with that august body. One of the profs suggested it might be an angel shark, and I concur with that theory. It may be a monk fish or, as it is called an angel fish. The angel fish of the genus Squatina; grows to six feet and more and takes its name from its pectoral fins which are very large and extend horizontally, like wings. It is a species of shark—not a ray. I have never heard of this species of shark being taken hereabouts, but it may have been, of course. Oh, yes, John also landed a nice leopard shark and he has learned that said species makes good eating, so took it home with him.

THE LATEST reports from Tomales Bay indicate quite a few salmon being caught but few halibut.

I MENTIONED the Monterey Bay as being one bright spot for salmon. On Sunday, according to the report from the Stagnaros at Santa Cruz, Skipper Tom Ghio located some fast fishing just outside the Whistling Buoy—Eight salmon to 18 pounds were hauled over the side during one hour of fishing.

Quite a stunt was pulled by Ward Knokes on one of the Stagnaro long distance boats Sunday. Ward collected himself 10 ling cod to 15 pounds along with 30 pounds of assorted rockfish.

Congratulations to Ida Fernandez who goes deep sea fishing regularly; she landed a nice ling cod of 15½ pounds.

BEAUCOUP congratulations to that fishing family of Harry L. Davis. Harry's wife and four youngsters tested the waters of Clear Lake near Valley Landing at the Highlands. Harry fished two hours on Saturday for black bass and caught four nice three-pounders, tried for another two hours Sunday morning and collected three more. The kids went all out for bluegills. Caught an estimated 150 of them. Between the whole family, they brought home a couple of nice blue cats, seven black bass and several large crappies (the latter were caught from the fishing pier, the blackies from a boat, on a black worm lure). Davis mentioned some fast and fancy fishing recently in Conn Lake. Mentioned seeing a 7½-pound rainbow landed as well as flocks of black bass.

DARK HAS COMPANY

Temper Tantrums In Sports World

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Freud could have said it, but it was a gentle, even-tempered man noted for his calm quiet named Alvin Dark.

"A man just can't keep everything inside himself."

So Alvin, manager of the San Francisco Giants, laid violent hands on a metal stool after blowing a tight ball game and hurled it viciously across the locker room. In the process, he cut his finger badly.

He has, it might be added, a lot of company in the world of sports.

Most of the temperamental type are well known for their pyrotechnics. They are the guys with the sea-level boiling point and the low-pressure escape valve.

Take Tom McNeeley, the Boston heavyweight who is looking to battle Floyd Patterson, the invisible man, for the world heavyweight title. McNeeley was such a terrible tempered Mister Banger that he went to a psychiatrist in an attempt to curb himself.

It would seem that this might be a great asset to a box fighter, but that doesn't necessarily hold true. Lose your temper and you lose your head, and when your chin is sticking out from the bottom of it the results can be disastrous.

The late Al (Bummy) Davis was so irate over a decision one night that he began to play football with the referee. He was banned for life, a decision which stood several months the way the fight dodge operates. And many pugs have returned irately to their dressing room and proceeded to beat the locker doors, thereby doing more damage to both parties concerned than they ever did in the ring.

Baseball is loaded with skyrocket guys, say like Ted Williams, Jim Piersall, Don Drysdale, Johnny Temple, Eddie Stankey and Mickey Mantle. It ever was Mantle's wont, after striking out, to return to the dugout and kick the water cooler.

But the baseball champion was Russ (The Mad Monk) Meyer. On at least one occasion he was terribly embarrassed by his temper. Meyer charged Umpire Frank Dascoli and advised him of the proper situation in terms vitriolic. It was unfortunate because the words were choice and the television microphone hung over home plate. The wires fused.

Tommy (Lightning) Bolt is the golfing champion in the apoplexy department and holds all records in club throwing whether you are considering number, distance or accuracy.

"I don't throw clubs any more than anybody else," Bolt fumes at the thought. "It's just that the galleries want to see me lose my temper and they needle me into it. They do things to make me mad and then yell 'Throw it, Tommy'."

One thing sure, the thunder man is truly accommodating.

Another explosive member of the golf fraternity was the late Clayton Heafner, a man noted for his towering rages. On one occasion, while contemplating a double bogey in the shower, he rammed his fist through the porcelain shower handle, shattering both items.

JULIUS CAESAR—Paula White (right) playing Calpurnia in Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" here warns Clifford Badger playing Caesar against his going to the Senate. Badger is also director. The play opens Friday at 8:30 p.m. at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club Hall. It was adapted for the players by John Hasty of Los Angeles. (Bert Howell photo)

Tam Players 'Julius Caesar' To Be Memorial Performance

Friday's opening night performance of "Julius Caesar" will be dedicated to the memory of Nicholas Monteleone by the Tamalpais Valley Players.

The part of Brutus was to have originally been played by Monteleone, 40, who drowned June 19 in San Francisco Bay. He had been a long-time member of the players, and was a resident of Sausalito.

The performance will initiate the second season of summer Shakespeare by the players at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club. The series of two plays, "Julius Caesar," and "The Taming of the Shrew," will be directed by Clifford Badger.

The cast for "Julius Caesar" includes Dan Scarlett as the narrator and Cinna; Bob White as Cassius; Norman Beals as the soothsayer; John Donhoff as Brutus; Jay Irving as Casca; Don Irving as Lusius; Art Sestak as Metellus; Dan Mulcahy as Trebonius; Cliff Badger, Paula White as Calpurnia; Alan Burdick as Mark Anthony, Mildred Thomas as Portia; Morrie Batz and Bernie Healey as the first and second commoners; Annette Helmstaedter as the crone; and Don Somerville and Linda Brown as citizens.

Dan Mulcahy is stage manager, with Sandy English handling the sound and Peter Lenz the sets and props. Miriam Burdick was costume designer, aided by Annette Helmstaedter, Maren Borg, Pat Lewis, and Paula White.

Bob White serves as assistant director. Marian Irving will operate the stage lighting.

A schedule of performances is as followes:

"Julius Caesar," June 30, July 1, 7, 15, 21, 29 and Aug. 4 and 5; "Taming of the Shrew," July 8, 14, 22 and 28.

Rec Program Signups Set

Registration for the Marin City summer recreation program will be held between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Wednesday at Manzanita School in Marin City, according to Harry Bailey.

Bailey is chairman of the sponsoring organization, the Marin City Community Services District.

He said registration will continue during the program which starts Wednesday and runs through Aug. 23 under the direction of Mrs. Santafe Moses. A registration fee will be charged.

Bailey also said that the advisory committee of the district will hold a workshop, starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, July 8, to clean up and renovate the gymnasium. Women are to bring food and men will use hammers and paint brushes, Bailey said.

Cynthia Nathan Wed In St. Paul's Rite

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael was the setting Sunday for the wedding of Cynthia Jane Nathan of San Rafael and Martyn Ross Toussaint of Saratoga.

The Rev. John Riley officiated for the 4 o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Nathan of San Rafael.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white embroidered nylon organza.

Preceding the bride down the aisle in gowns of peach chiffon were Judy Riede of Greenbrae, as maid of honor, and Aileen Miller of San Rafael, as bridesmaid.

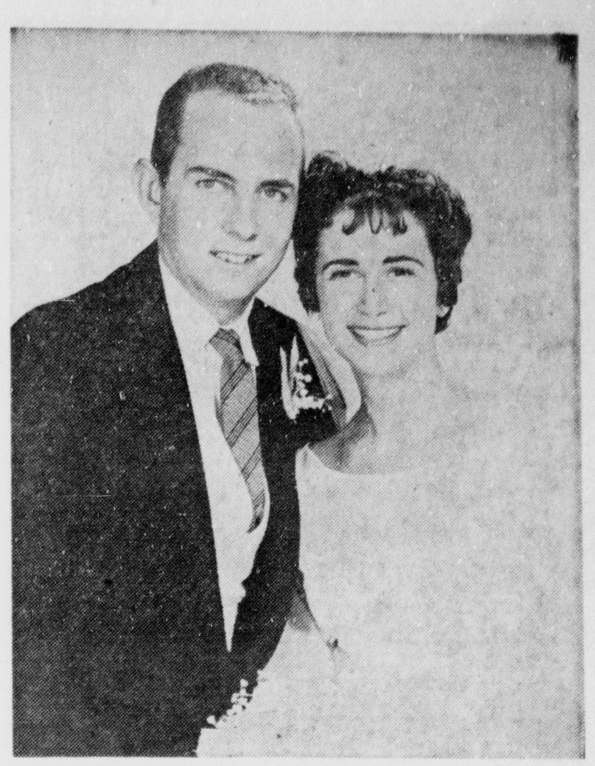
James H. Stanford of San Diego acted as best man. Ushers were Wallace Hawley, Atherton; Merritt Hait, San Jose, and Kyrk Reid, Palo Alto.

A reception followed the ceremony in the San Rafael home of Dr. and Mrs. Alex Miller.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and attended Stanford University. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gifford of San Rafael.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Toussaint of Saratoga, was graduated from Redondo Union High School in Saratoga. He is a graduate of Stanford where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. He plans to attend the Stanford Graduate School of Business in the fall. Mrs. E. S. Hyde of Altadena and Mrs. C. P. Toussaint of Cedar Rapids, Ia., are his grandmothers.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will make their home in San Jose.



MR. AND MRS. Martyn Ross Toussaint were married Sunday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. The bride, the former Cynthia Jane Nathan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Nathan of San Rafael. (Luther Greer photo)

Northgate Group To Serve Luncheon To Judges, Clerks

Volunteers of the Northgate Group of the Marin Art and Garden Center, directed by Mrs. Willard L. Frier of Ross, will sponsor and serve luncheon for the judges and clerks of the Marin Art and Garden Fair at noon tomorrow.

Assisting Mrs. Frier will be Mesdames William L. Kapranos and Roland Wilson

Junior Northgaters, headed by their adviser, Mrs. Henry E. Skinner, will serve at the outdoor events at the Center.

Judges who will have the lunch before the afternoon of judging include Harry Nelson, John Staley, Robert M. Babcock for model gardens, bonsai, plant specimens and collections of blooms.

Other judges will be Mesdames Herbert Farewell, Henry Boos, D. V. Nicholson, for flower arrangements; Mrs. John Smith, for flower specimens; Nicholas Protopopoff, fruits and vegetables; Mesdames Henry W. Koch, J. H. Flack, Raymond H. Wonnenberg, Ralph A. Alden, Fred H. Sloat, John Gaidano, William Kapranos, F. W. Macondray and Allen Zeiss.

Scout Patrol Applications Being Received

Applications for the Golden Jubilee Senior Girl Scout Roundup, to be held at Button Bay State Park, Vermont, July 18 to 31, 1962, are being accepted by the Marin Council selection committee.

Although the Roundup is a year off, graduating eighth grade and high school age Scouts must apply through their leaders this month to be eligible for a place in the eight girl patrol which will represent Marin.

"Honor the Past—Serve the Future" will serve as the theme for the encampment, when 7,680 Senior Girl Scouts from all over the United States, as well as international patrols from Europe and the Orient will gather for two weeks.

All applicants will participate in a skills-testing day at Sky Oaks in September, after which 16 girls will be chosen to train together until January 1962, when the Roundup Patrol and alternates will be chosen.

Serving on the Roundup coordinating committee are Mesdames J. B. Purcell, chairman, and Leigh Abell, James D. Adams, I. D. Brazell, George L. Daum, Robert Langbehn, and Leonard Saxe. Mrs. Walter Carter will serve as Roundup trainer.

First Press-On Dress Pattern Will Be Available In Mid-July

NEW YORK — The world's first press-on pattern was introduced yesterday.

Herbert Bijur, general manager of McCall's Patterns, developers of the new process, said it was the most revolutionary achievement in home sewing since the paper pattern itself.

A "top secret" project, created and tested over a two-year research period, the Easy-Mark pattern looks much like a conventional paper pattern. But with this new pattern, tailor's tacking, the tracing wheel, and dressmaker's carbons are all eliminated. The pattern, placed on the "wrong side" of the fabric, is merely pressed on with a warm iron.

The patented ink instantly and accurately transfers the pattern outline, including darts, notches, seam allowances and other necessary markings to most light, medium and bright colored fabrics with smooth texture. The ink outline dries on contact and will not run or blot. When the garment is completed, the markings may be easily removed by washing or dry-cleaning. It should be stressed that when darts and seams are sewn, few marks remain visible and these are on the inside of the garment.

Each Easy-Mark pattern may be used two times, and Easy-Mark's versatility permits its use as a conventional printed pattern. Because the ink is dark blue, it is not effective on dark blue, black or very dark tweed or dark patterned materials. Prices of Easy-Mark patterns will be between 50 and 75 cents, depending upon the style.

Color Unlimited

Summer into fall cottons have a color-unlimited look with bright, warm blues and magentas, hunting greens and ginger, burnished gold and the soft dove colors of grey and beige being shown in harmonies. In addition to the solids, there are shadow plaids and jaunty hunting checks.

On Nix List

If you're a shortie, avoid very bulky fabrics or very full silhouettes. Also on the nix list: oversized accessories such as big bags or wide hats.

The first Easy-Mark pattern (No. 6004) is a slim, classic-style dress, with a round, easy neck, molded bodice, slim skirt slightly gathered at the waist and a choice of short or long sleeves. It will be available to the public in mid-July.

Other Easy-Mark patterns to be released within the next 10 weeks include a convertible blouse in three variations for August and a basic skirt for September. By the end of 1961, a total of six sewing fashions will comprise the Easy-Mark Wardrobe.

Pioneer in the simplification of home-sewing techniques, McCall's introduced the first printed paper pattern in 1920. According to Bijur, who is a vice president of the McCall's Corporation, Easy-Mark provides "the most accurate means of transferring marking in the pattern field. It will be a boon to beginners, an inspiration to youngsters just learning the fun and rewards of home sewing, and an enormous time-saver for busy women who haven't a moment to spare. Also, I believe it will offer many teaching advantages in the classroom."

MRS PETER H. Roepke and her husband will be honored at a reception tomorrow at the Bohemian Club in San Francisco. The recent bride is the former Elizabeth Landram of Ross.

Roepkes Will Be Honored Tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Landram of Ross have announced the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth to Peter Hague Roepke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roepke of Hillsborough.

The couple, who were married in Mazatlan, Mexico, April 4, will have a special blessing ceremony tomorrow at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco attended by relatives. The Rev. Harold Hallett of St. John's Church in Ross will officiate. A reception for the couple will follow at the Bohemian Club in San Francisco for relatives and friends of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Roepke are living in Burlingame for the summer until they return to their studies at the University of Arizona in Tucson, where the couple met. Peter was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity there and his wife was a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Playroom Care

Spring cleaning may have revealed that during the cooped-up days of winter the walls and floors of your playroom have taken quite a beating. One way to prevent this is to surface floors with ceramic tile. Smudges, crayon marks, ink and paint spots on ceramic tile wash off easily, and once again this surface is good as new.

Holbrook Rite In Mill Valley

Lt. and Mrs. Mark Stephen Holbrook are on a wedding trip to Carmel following their wedding June 17 at the Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley.

The bride, who is the former Penelope Susan Anderson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Anderson of Belvedere. She was given in marriage by her father. Penelope wore a candlelight peau de soie floor length gown for the nuptials, which were performed by Rev. D. Murray Hammond.

Margery Eischen of Pasadena was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Ellen Rynders of Mill Valley, Judy McAlexander of Anaheim and Sally Smith of Sacramento. All wore turquoise sheath dresses with organza overskirts.

William Broughton of Sacramento was best man and ushers were Thomas and Theodore Zink and John Howlett, all of Mill Valley. After the ceremony a reception was given at the Presidio Officers' Club.

The bride was graduated from Roosevelt High School in Honolulu and attended the College of Marin. She has been employed by a bank in Mill Valley. Her husband, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Holbrook of Spencer, Okla., is stationed at the Presidio with the U. S. Army. He also is a Roosevelt graduate and was graduated from the University of Idaho.

Ertmans Attend Son's Graduation

Fred C. Ertman, class of '54 Sir Francis Drake High School and class of '59 Hartnell Junior College, Salinas, graduated magna cum laude from San Jose State College on June 16. He majored in biology and physical education and received his degree in Science and Occupation. His honor society affiliations are Tau Delta Phi and Phi Epsilon Kappa.

Residing in Santa Clara with his wife, the former Nancy Edwards of San Anselmo, and their two children, he will continue his education at San Jose State College to get an M.A. degree.

Following commencement exercises, a dinner party was hosted at San Jose by the senior Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ertman of Kentfield, to honor Fred, a younger son, Henry, who had graduated a few days previously from Adeline E. Kent School in Kentfield, and their son-in-law. Walter Parker of Anchorage, who received his B.A. degree last month from the University of Alaska.

Compulsive Plant Waterers Keep Dimestore In Business

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Every now and then I get an urge to leave the U. S. Government temporarily to its own devices and spend a few pastoral hours communing with Mother Nature.

The last time this yearning came upon me, Mother Nature was out to lunch. So I communed instead with Raymond Van Overschelde, who is one of Wall Street's biggest African violet tycoons.

Van Overschelde is head of horticultural activities for a national dime store chain.

Until meeting Van Overschelde, who passed through here on a business trip, I had never associated a five-and-dime store with the agrarian movement. But he told me that his chain had been in this line for 82 years. It has the largest garden supply business in the world, he said.

The company now caters strongly to the multi-flora needs of the suburban agronomist, but over the years its mainstay customer has been the city-dweller with window box and planter.

City dwellers make good customers because they provide so much repeat business. They buy a potted plant, take it home and kill it, and then go out and buy another.

"Why is the casualty rate among potted plants so high?" I asked Van Overschelde.

He said the chief cause in the flower pot was over-watering. A good rule of green thumb, he said, is to "water a plant thoroughly once a week and let it suffer in between."

I do not think however, that Van Overschelde's advice will ever be widely followed. Most people cannot stand to see an African violet suffer.

I've known people who couldn't sleep at night because they fancied they could hear a geranium crying for water.

They may take the pledge and actually refrain from watering the plant for a day or two. But the next thing you know, they are sneaking drinks to it while nobody is looking.

Daughter Finding Herself In Competition With Mom

"My mother is jealous of me," writes a girl of 17. "I love her and she loves me. But we compete too much. When boys come to see me she tries to attract them. She wants me to dress as though I was 12 or 13. She has to prove that she is prettier, and sexier than I am. I accused her of this, and she admitted it. Is she a freak?"

No, she isn't a freak. She is unusually honest. The same competition is found in many homes, but most of the mothers can't admit it. Try to understand her feelings. She has always been attractive. She has been the center of the stage. She has been your leader. Now you are blooming, and she is fading. Time, work and worry have taken their toll. She feels displaced. It is normal for her to be jealous.

At 17 you feel grown-up. You used to accept your mother's authority, but now you can't. You want to be a woman in your own right. So you compete, in spite of your love.

Already you have taken the first big step in overcoming the difficulty. You did that when you both admitted that competition exists. Now you should try to keep it within bounds. Your mother is too mature to make a play for your boy friends. She should realize it, and take the back seat when they're around. She should let you dress the way other girls of your age dress.

Talk with your father. He can help you. Look for beauty and love in your mother. Look for things you can compliment and praise. Help your parents revive their social life. Help them find things they can enjoy doing together. Then she'll be happier and your life will improve.

Flower-Pot Heaven

Bringing beauty into the home can be a problem as well as a delight. Finding a proper place for geraniums and other flowers is a perennial headache because of the inevitable accidents that occur in watering and handling the plants. Best way to solve the problem once and for all is to surface your window sills with durable easy-to-clean materials like ceramic tile. You will not only have a safe place for your plants, but with ceramic tile sills you will have additional year - round beauty to enjoy.

Nuns Have A Day At Bowling Alley

By RUDY CERNKOVIC

Pittsburg (UPI)—Sister Christopher sighed and remarked she was a better bowler back in the days when she was a telephone operator in Johnstown, N. Y.

"Guess I used to average around 145 then," she reflected. "This is the first time I've thrown a bowling ball in 10 years."

Throwing strikes in the eighth and ninth frames, Sister Christopher made her last fling with a backhand motion that knocked down all but the head pin. She then delivered a hook that disposed of the missed wood.

"That's a spare and gives me 164," she said. "At least it's much better than my first game."

"What was your first game score?" she was asked.

"Lousy," she whispered behind her hand. "Only 130."

About 60 members of the Vincentian Sisters of Charity took time out from their convent duties to accept an invitation to bowl as guests of a local bowling alley.

"This is your day, Sisters, go to it," owner Leonard Rudolph told them. Then he added solemnly, "And if you want to make a few side bets it's all right with me."

Many of the Nuns teach in elementary schools and some are assigned to hospital work.

'I DID IT'

There was an outburst of excitement in alley No. 32.

"I did it, I did it and the first time I ever bowled," exclaimed Sister Ellen.

"She threw a strike," said Sister Nivard admiringly.

Sister John Martin, a seventh grade teacher, was a model of concentration. She bowled only 42 in her first attempt at the game and watched an attendant keep score. She asked a few questions and kept score during the second game.

The attendant was surprised that the Nun had mastered the rudiments of scoring in her first try.

"Some don't learn how to keep score until they've been bowling for months," he remarked.

Sister Fabian, a practical nurse for 31 years, said she enjoyed her first game.

"Now I have a mutual interest with many of my patients who have bowled," she said.

CONTROL TROUBLE

Sister James Marie, a southpaw, had control trouble and rolled several balls into the gutter. She scored 45 in her first game.

Sister Christopher took her aside, displayed the proper stance and grip.

"I got 104 in my second game," Sister James Marie exclaimed with delight. "This is a wonderful game."

The Sisters chattered gayly at the snack bar where everything was on the house.

"Hadn't been for that hamburger, I could have topped 164," said Sister Christopher.

The house provided the bowling shoes for the guests.

"This is the most comfortable pair of shoes I've worn since I joined the order," remarked one nun. But she politely rejected Rudolph's offer that she take them with her.

U. S., Foreign Girls Set Out To See America 'From Inside'

By FRED T. FERGUSON

NEW YORK (UPI)—Seventy-two young ladies, 15 to 19 years of age, have set out to see this country—as one of them put it—"from the inside."

The girls and their eight adult chaperones come from 27 of the United States and 12 foreign countries.

During the next six weeks—with most of the American girls traveling in different sections of the country from their homes—they'll probably see a good deal more of the United States than many Americans are likely to in a lifetime.

The American girls, all senior Girl Scouts, and the foreign girls, Girl Guide Rangers, split up into four groups and boarded buses.

Two of the buses started out from Stanford University in Palo Alto, one headed for the Northwest. The other started a trip through the Southwest. Two others departed from New York to cover the Northeast and Southeast.

All four groups also will see a good deal of the central United States before they meet at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., Aug. 8, to compare notes.

THOUSAND FAMILIES

By that time, the girls will have covered a total of more than 16,000 miles, traveled through 40 states and the District of Columbia, stopped over at 25 towns and cities and spent a night or two in the homes of about 1,000 American families.

The foreign girls' trip was financed by the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund established in honor of the founder of Girl Scouting in this country and supported by the nickels and dimes contributed by Girl Scouts. A $200 fee charged the U. S. Girls was either raised by their local Scout councils or by the girls themselves.

Mary Karen Buck, 17, of Glendale, Mo., who said she raised the money for her trip by baby sitting and was making her first trip outside her home state, was one of the 12 American girls who started out to see the Northwest with two girls each from Brazil, Italy and the Netherlands and two adult leaders.

"Will we see cowboys out west?" asked Serena Padovani, 17, of Bologna, Italy.

"Of course," she was told.

TO SEE REDWOODS

After taking in such sites as California's famed redwoods, the Columbia Gorge in Oregon and a glacier in Washington, the girls will visit cattle ranches near Bozeman, Mont., before riding a float in Salt Lake City's "days of '47" parade.

Stops at Virginia's historic Williamsburg, the Oak Ridge national laboratory in Tennessee and New Orleans' French quarter were also included in the Southeast tour on which French, Danish and British Girl Guides accompanied the the Girl Scouts.

Inger Lorange, 17, of Hovik, Norway, said she wanted "to see America from the inside" and was particularly looking forward "to living with Girl Scout families." She will visit an Amish family and eat Pennsylvania Dutch meals at Lancaster, Pa., during her tour of the Northeast with Girl Scouts and Irish and Mexican Girl Guides.

Voters Rejected Supervisors, Not The Issues, At Polls

No one should assume from the results of Tuesday's election that the voters of Marin County are not interested in solving both the housing problems of the aged and the hospital care of the ill and infirm.

The dismal defeat of both the hospital bond issue and the authorization for additional federal low rent housing was a violent protest by the voters against the incomplete programs offered them.

The tremendous proportion of the voters who stayed away from the polls, more than three quarters of them, paid bleak tribute to the lack of sound planning, coordination, and follow through which went into the measures.

It is ironic that the so-called "economy" supervisors were responsible for holding a special election, at a cost of $25,000 or more, on two propositions which by their very nature were doomed to defeat. There is added irony in the fact that this same economy bloc opposed the $2,250,000 hospital bond issues last year, which missed two third majorities by just a hair. There were more Yes votes last year than the total vote this year for a bond issue less than half the size.

The answer obviously is that the Marin voter is in no mood to turn over a million dollars here and a million dollars there to the supervisors, the Housing Authority or anyone else without a carefully worked out program of how the money is to be spent and who will benefit.

The supervisors made little or no attempt to inform the public on the issues. There were no citizens committees organized and practically no publicity about the hospital bonds. There was a last-minute effort made on behalf of the housing proposal, sparked mainly by the Housing Authority. But it was much too late.

Dual issues and lack of support apparently have become standard operating procedures of the supervisors. They put up two issues, somewhat alike when they want to confuse the election, or they just toss out a proposal for vote without careful consideration and let it be defeated. Then they can say, "Well, you defeated it at the polls, what can we do about it?"

This year they used a new gimmick in addition. Six days before the election they produced a new hospital report, then rejected it by saying they could build a hospital for half the cost the report indicated.

Unfortunately, it isn't the supervisors themselves who must suffer from such goings-on. The ill and elderly suffer. These twin problems of the county hospital and housing for the aged aren't solved by politics. They need careful planning after serious study.

Offering of sound solutions is the responsibility of our Board of Supervisors. When they are offered, we feel sure the voters of Marin will respond.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Farm Superior To Local Hospitals

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Carmel Booth sounded off the other night about Dr. Dufficy and the Lucas Valley Farm. I don't think Mrs. Booth, although she says she has been a volunteer worker out there, realizes that although conditions might not always be perfect, that place is so far superior to our local hospitals for old people, both in care given, room, changes of bedding, gowns, baths and so forth, that there isn't any comparison. Here is how I know.

Sept. 25, 1958, my mother who was 87 years old, had a bad heart attack. The doctor in attendance said she had to be moved to a hospital and we moved her at once to one of the local hospitals, where, at $29 per day, plus 65c per aspirin tablet in a tiny paper cup, plus $35 for one-third tank of oxygen used one night when she had a light stroke and heart attack, and similar medicinal charges, she was placed in a three bed ward. They said they didn't have another bed available.

Now this part is not dainty, or for the weak-kneed, but most of us have some one in the hospital now and then. Instead of bothering the nurses not only my old Mommy, but all the women in that ward and in others were put with catheters and bottles hung on the bedside, and heaven knows when and how came the bedpans . . .

I could only get up once per day. I did notice that in the so-called "paid hospital" her sheets were soiled, her nightgown was not changed, and they didn't seem to give a darn whether she lived or died. For one month and one day, that cost me $1,500. I had to give up the ghost and ask for help from our County Medical Society. And bless them, they gave it.

They moved Mom from that miserable crowded three bed ward, into a bright and sunny two bed ward, with the additional patient one who was able to ring the bell for Mom if she needed help. They bathed her daily and changed her bed linen and gave her a fresh gown. They gave her individual water bottle, tube, glasses and so on.

Dr. Dufficy checked on her condition on the day she arrived and she was checked daily by him, despite the fact that Carmel Booth says he's only out for mileage.

Mr. De la Montanya, Mrs. Parker, Nurse Mullins and all the other wonderful men and women who work around that place, whose names I regret I cannot remember, were absolutely wonderful to Mom. They healed up the bedsores she'd got from neglect in the paid hospital, although her death was imminent. When the time came she was about to go, bless them all, they phoned me in time, so I could spend the last hours with her.

Now for the benefit of folks who think that sort of thing is charity. It isn't unless you absolutely have to have it. I'd reached the end of paying the $29 plus daily with poor care. The County of Marin admitted Mom on condition I sign over the small policy of insurance she had and pay what I could, and when I could. I did that. I paid, in addition to a $200 insurance policy, a rate of $8 per day.

But never did I pay a bill so happily. I'd been in misery when Mom was neglected in the paid hospital, and when she got so much TLC (tender loving care) out there, I made up my mind that any time the Lucas Valley Farm or Dr. Dufficy, who was so gentle with her, needed my help, they'd have it . . .

Real Violence Worse Than TV

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

According to a recent item in your journal, the new chairman of the Federal Communications Commission declares that TV has got to get better it it's to stay on the air.

Chairman Minow says if you want to find out how bad TV is, "Sit down in front of your set when your station comes on in the morning and stay there until it signs off that night." He asserts you'll see a procession of junk, violence, silliness, and commercials, with only a few things you'll enjoy, and most of all, he added, "boredom."

Now I'm no authority on TV, but I'm not sure that watching the thing 14 hours in a stretch and complaining because you come out bored is any real test. I have a notion that if Chairman Minow will get in my car with me each morning, glue himself to the seat, bend his head over, and commute with me to San Francisco he'll get off extremely bored, not to mention other things.

As for violence on TV, I'll admit its bad, but saying it'll have to be eliminated if TV is to stay on the air is like saying crime news will have to be eliminated from newspapers if they're to stay in business. It's like saying violence will have to be eliminated from history books if they're to be read. It's like saying Shakespear would have been an enduring success if he had cut out all them suicides and stabbings and swordplay.

Understand, I am not in favor of violence. For one thing it takes more energy than I care to dissipate. But on TV, when an outlaw gets shot, even the kids know it's only acting, the bullets are fakes and the same characters will get shot again next week. But where the Federal Communications Commission will run into trouble is when it tries to convince the kids only fake bullets are used in war.

Television can continue its violence and stay on the air, but ca man continue his and stay on earth?

I could give you the answer, but excuse me, Wagon Train is coming on, just as soon as the newscast about new violence in Laos goes off.

When Summer Comes All At Once Even Classified Ads Go Daffy

When summer comes to Marin, it surely isn't bashful about coming all at once.

Just a few weeks ago, we were all complaining about the unusual weather this year, scarcely a day for decent swimming. Then all of a sudden the sun turns on all its amps or watts at one time and literally burns up our gardens.

But at least now, it feels like vacation time. It's a good, lazy feeling, marred only by the alarming increase in summer tragedies.

NOTICE HOW many deaths we've had in nearby lakes during the past few weeks? And the sudden jump in highway wrecks and bodies strewn all over the pavement?

Which serves to point up the need for extra care in driving and in vacationing during the summer months.

BASEBALL SEASON is also following, more or less, the normal trend of last year.

Used to be a pleasure to pick up the sports page to see "where we stand today." But nowadays, we're afraid to look.

EVEN THE classified ads reflect the daffy summer atmosphere.

One apartment owner advertising apartments for rent says, "Single person or married, okay." (I guess it means that any others need not apply).

AND FROM San Anselmo, a man who works in downtown San Rafael takes advantage of good weather to pedal a bicycle to work each morning.

He swears he makes just as good time as in a car, with no parking problem to worry about. He just pulls into the bike rack at the police station.

IF YOU WANT to blackmail some of the prominent citizens in town, you ought to get hold of a yearbook put out by the San Rafael elementary school in the Roaring Twenties.

Some of the characters that appear in it really look like delinquents.

They tell me a high ranking school official at Davidson has a 1920 yearbook and might be induced to let you have a peek.

MEL MORSE of the Humane Society always has the welfare of animals uppermost in his mind.

So when the San Rafael city council began putting trees in two-foot high concrete planters along the streets, Morse was heard to protest:

"The city is discriminating against small dogs!"

TO CORRECT the record, the young lady in the courthouse with the eye-catching silver-gray upswept hairdo is Stella Stolz.

The last time, her name came out in jumbled type.

World Needs More Explanation If U. S. Is To Start Testing Again

WASHINGTON — If you were not an American—say, if you were an Asian, an African, or a Scandinavian—how do you think you would react if suddenly you read that the United States is first to resume nuclear testing?

From what little you have read in your newspapers and from the barrage of conflicting Soviet argument, would you feel that the U. S. has genuinely sought an agreement with Moscow?

Would you feel that the United States has exhausted every chance in its effort to reach agreement with the Soviets?

IN LIGHT OF the many past differences among the scientists over the perils of radioactive fall-out, would you be entirely comfortable with the assurance that underground nuclear testing would have no health hazards?

When you realize that a world-wide test ban is the only means of preventing the spread of nuclear weapons to nearly every country, how are you, as an Asian or an African or an Indian, going to feel when the United States has abandoned hope of agreement with the Soviets and has apparently been the first to begin testing again?

I raise these questions, not as reasons to shrink from resuming testing but to show what a thorough, imaginative, sustained, and high-level campaign of education is needed before we do so and in order that the necessity of doing it will be widely acceptable.

AMBASSADOR Arthur Dean, who headed the U. S. delegation to the last Geneva talks, has made a beginning in this campaign of education.

He did a great deal to resolve the remaining differences within the administration.

He and David Ormsby-Gore finally were able to iron out American and British differences so that the U. S. and Britain could speak with a single voice.

He presented to the Soviets at Geneva a precise text of a test ban treaty so that the whole world could see that the U. S. wanted to get a treaty, not just go through the motions. In addition he talked personally with many of the ambassadors from the neutral and uncommitted countries to explain the concessions which the U. S. was making.

Much more needs to be done before we can resume underground testing with a good prospect of world understanding.

THE TEXT of the test ban treaty, which the Soviets rejected, should be published, with a clear explanation of the meaning of every section, for worldwide distribution.

There ought to be a U. S. scientists' report for the study of scientists in other countries.

Ambassador Dean ought to meet with the heads of every diplomatic mission in Washington to discuss candidly every question and doubt they may have and if, after they have reported to their capitals, there is any government which wants to talk with Mr. Dean personally, he should be willing to go in person for such talks.

THERE OUGHT to be a full-scale briefing of all U. S. editors and commentators.

President Kennedy ought to address the world from the rostrum of the United Nations when the Assembly convenes in September.

I believe that what we do in this area in the next few months will affect, more than anything else, the prestige of the U. S. as a nation trustworthily devoted to peace and firmly determined to defend the free world.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

MOTHERS GET LOBSTERS

A waitress carrying a bright red, cooked lobster is a familiar sight in the maternity ward of one of Toronto's hospitals.

The proprietor of a local restaurant makes it a practice to provide lobsters to all his regular customers whenever they have an addition to the family.

"I give away about a thousand lobsters a year," the enterprising restaurant owner said.

It is a wise merchant who takes the time and trouble to be thoughtful of his patrons. But it is even more commendable when any person goes out of his way to render a service to someone in need.

While showing due consideration for your family, friends and customers, seek opportunities also to display a practical Christlike concern for the poor, hungry and disheartened people in your midst and over the world.

Make their cause your cause and you will be taking a few effective steps to solve the heartaches of humanity.

Some Tourists The Europeans Wish Would Stay In America

NEW YORK (AP)—American tourists remarks that foreigners get tired of hearing:

"Put a sweater over your bikini, Mildred, and then I'm sure it'll be okay to go into the cathedral. It'll kinda look like you're only wearing shorts."

"Yeah, the room's fine and the view's sure worth $8.50 a day plus breakfast—but, I give up, where you got the TV set hidden?"

"You can call 'em crepe suzettes if you want to, but back home grandma called 'em jelly pancakes."

"Excuse me. Avez vous un . . . uh . . . Avez vous une . . . uh . . . oh, what the hell! It's like beating your head against concrete."

"This is the kind of foreign country I like. It just fits a postcard."

"Oh, no, not another museum!"

"So that's the Venus de Milo? How do you tip her? She doesn't have any hands."

"Why is it the people working in the fields—so many women, too — have such a bent-over look?"

"You mean you've never made one before? No, not half and half. You put in five of this, a wave of the bottle of that. And where in the hell is the ice?"

"I love the English, don't you? They're so colloquial — that is, when they decide they have something that really isn't worth saying."

"The great thing about the British is they don't have much to talk about. If they have had a defeat, they'd rather not mention it; if they have had a victory, they enjoy more having you brag about it than them."

"WELL, HERE'S the good ol Taj Mahal. If they had a building like this in California, you not only could admire it—you could drive up and sit in your car and enjoy a hamburger, too."

"Isn't he quaint? Tell him to hold still. After all, I'm taking his pitcher."

"You call that money? It looks more like wall paper to me."

"DON'T ARGUE with him, George. Be firm. Remember, like we were told, every American is an ambassador abroad."

Tomorrow: Remarks foreigners do like to hear from American tourists.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Robert Littell, in his book "It Takes All Kinds," tells of frisky Oxford undergraduates who practice for future Alpine and Himalayan mountain-climbing feats by inching their way up the walls and monuments of the various edifices on the Oxford campus. The fact that this sport is strictly forbidden adds an extra attraction to the activity.

One corpulent don who had been a famous mountain climber in his younger days recently gave a group of these Oxonian scalawags a surprise. Spotting them carefully ascending the outside of the most hallowed building in Oxford, he hurried around to the other side and, puffing heavily, managed to reach the summit first. When the temporarily triumphant undergrads got there themselves, the next voice they heard was the don's. "Gentlemen," he asked calmly, "may I have your name please?"

REP. MILLER SAYS:

House Unit Working On JFK Tax Reforms

By REP. CLEMENT MILLER

WASHINGTON — The tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee has been working for months now on the president's tax reform proposals. This legislation will directly affect everyone in the Nation when and if enacted.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon opened the committee's hearings by plunking down a two-pound bundle citing chapter and verse on some of the loopholes in the Internal Revenue Code.

Dillon backed up the president's requests with examples of just exactly what some favored taxpayers have been getting away with under existing law. His evidence sheds light on what has been called our "expense account economy." He also dealt with U.S. taxpayers who live in foreign "tax havens" for tax purposes only, and on the preferential treatment given income from dividends on stocks as distinguished from income from salary, or wages, or from one's own business or profession.

Here are a few of Dillon's examples:

1. A milk processor deducted $16,433 for an African safari on grounds he was advertising his firm.

2. A corporation deducted $239,666 for a luxurious tropical resort used to entertain customers and officers of the corporation.

3. A company executive deducted $6,000 for a swimming pool on land owned by his company but located next door to his home and which could be reached only through his home.

Dillon also reported that a sampling of 38,000 returns showed 22.8 million dollars in claimed deductions for country club dues, night club checks, theater tickets, yachts, business gifts and so forth. He also said that a check of returns of 33 U. S. citizens living abroad showed that under present law they were excused completely from paying taxes on yearly incomes ranging from $105,145 to $996,200.

In order to blow the whistle on such abuses, the president has proposed certain limits on taxpayer-financing of personal pleasure. He has, for instance, asked Congress to virtually eliminate deductions for entertainment, and to limit deductible business lunches to $7 a person and business traveling expenses to $30 a day.

While recommending repeal of the tax break now given to income from dividends, Dillon punctured some of the arguments being used against this proposal.

For example, the argument is made that repeal of the 4 per cent tax break on dividend income would hurt mostly widows and orphans. The facts according to Dillon are that:

1. Seventy-five per cent of this tax credit now goes to those with annual incomes of more than $10,000;

2. Fifteen per cent goes to those with less than $5,000.

Indications are that the committee will recommend repeal of the 4 per cent dividend credit but retain the present exemption on the first $50 of income from dividends.

The president also has asked for additional tax credits for business investment in new plant and equipment in order to encourage economic growth. The committee is expected to recommend that 8 per cent of such investment be deductible.

Kennedy's current proposals are expected to be followed next year by requests for more far-reaching tax reform, including repeal of excessive depletion allowances such as those enjoyed by the oil industry and including additional incentives to real economic growth.

As Dillon put it: "The longer-run objects of our tax reform are to adapt our tax system to the requirements of a dynamically expanding economy, to provide for a broader and more uniform tax base, and as a consequence to permit reconsideration of the entire tax rate and bracket structure."

The plan, and hope, is that enough loopholes will be plugged and the economy will grow sufficiently to permit an across-the-board tax cut of major proportions.

A reduction in income tax rates to as low as 10 per cent in the low and middle income brackets is now being discussed within the administration. The present plan is for the president to propose a tax cut next January provided it is accompanied by closure of more tax loopholes.

Highway Patrol Chief Points Out Law On Parking Lights

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's law prohibiting the use of parking lights for headlights has been on the books for five years now.

But Bradford Crittenden, State Highway Patrol commissioner, reports there are still many motorists breaking the law, many of them because they aren't even aware of it.

The law says you can't use your parking lights while driving, except as turning signals or when the headlights also are on.

The law was enacted to halt a dangerous practice. As Crittenden says:

"It was patrol experience that parking lights used as driving lights tended to confuse oncoming drivers. The pinpoints of light were misconstrued as regular headlights viewed at some distance."

In other words, when you see an oncoming car which has only its parking lights on, you're apt to think it's a lot farther away than it really is.

Parking lights just won't penetrate fog, especially dense fog, because of the small light they throw.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, June 29, the 180th day of the year with 185 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1577, Flemish painter Peter Paul Rubens was born.

In 1861, American surgeon William James Mayo was born.

In 1901, American singer Nelson Eddy was born.

In 1946, the British arrested more than 2,500 Jews in Palestine in an attempt to stamp out alleged terrorism.

In 1954, in one of the most bitter libel trials in history, writer-journalist Quentin Reynolds was awarded damages of $175,001 in his suit against columnist Westbrook Pegler.

A thought for today: Dutch philosopher Benedict Spinoza said: "He who would distinguish the true from the false must have an adequate idea of what is true and false.

Novato School Additions Make Gains

Trustees of the Novato Unified School District Tuesday night approved resolutions which move forward plans for a $428,497 library addition and new gymnasium at the high school.

The resolution approval means the district will apply for state loans for construction of the additional 16,895 square feet. Completion of the additions and of the six-classroom addition now under construction will mean the high school capacity will be hiked to 1,159 pupils, Supt. W. J. J. Smith explained. Enrollment in the fall is expected to be 940 to 950 pupils.

Trustees also agreed to meet with San Francisco developer Andrew Talbot to discuss plans for his 1,100-acre development north of Novato and the elementary schools and possible junior high and high schools needed. The meeting tentatively was set for July 11 pending approval by Talbot.

Trustees will meet in adjourned session at 11 a.m. Saturday to discuss purchase of four lots southeast of the high school site which are planned for an elementary school site.

Board members last night officially set the salaries of Supt. W. J. J. Smith at $14,500 up from $13,000 yearly; set $11,500 up from $10,000 for Eugene DeBrecht, assistant superintendent in charge of business; and set a $10,500 figure for Ralph Giovanniello, newly appointed assistant in charge of curriculum.

Smith's and DeBrecht's contracts were amended for the new salary figures and will continue to their termination next year; Giovanniello was granted a year's contract.

Point Reyes Citizen Protests Butane Tank

"A very tough traffic situation" is developing at Point Reyes Station, a resident charged Tuesday before Marin supervisors in bringing a halt to renewed efforts by McPhail's Inc. of San Rafael to establish a West Marin butane storage tank.

McPhail's recently lost out in an effort to put a tank at Olema. There were suggestions that nearby Point Reyes Station already had such facilities and appropriate zoning so McPhail's found a potential site east of the Shoreline Highway, winning an approval of use permit by the Planning Commissi despite opposition by Commissioners John F. Switzer and Felix Warburg.

Capt. Adolph Oko, unable to address the planners, appeared yesterday before the county supervisors and persuaded them to go over and survey the situation.

Pleading close proximity of his office and home to the proposed site, Oko said the access provisions for the proposed site were so bad as to build up an already bad traffic situation in the town.

Operators of existing propane storage have said that a distance of several miles should be maintained between tanks, especially in view of earthquake hazard since this site is on the San Andreas fault.

The supervisors arranged to visit Point Reyes Station July 8 and continued the problem to their meeting of July 11.

Two other planning items caused Supervisor J. Walter Blair to express concern over lack of agreement on final solution of drainage along Tiburon Boulevard on the Tiburon Peninsula.

First was a use permit application for construction of a Union Oil Co. service station near Blackfield Drive, and the unsettled nature of state plans for highway and either exposed or covered drainage was brought out.

A later item involving tentative map of Cove Unit 1, a proposed eight-acre subdivision south and east of Tiburon Boulevard near Greenwood Cove, raised the same question. Supervisor Walter Castro recalled that "the state has said there was a problem that might cost $100,000 for drainage."

Blair had promised to arrange a meeting of all interested parties in an effort to bring final solution for the area, but Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham asked leave to place on record that plans for the subdivision couldn't be approved until drainage had been worked out.

Union Oil finally won a 3-2 decision and on Blair's motion, the subdivision tentative map was approved subject to conditions, and approval by county counsel.

The supervisors also:

1. Set for 2 p. m. hearing July 18 Robert Rolicheck's Alto Wye Apartment master plan and Leslie Smith's petition to rezone 4½ acres to planned residential southwest of Vistazo West at Lyford Drive near Marinero Residences, Tiburon Peninsula.

2. Played host to a visit by summer session "Problems of American Democracy" seniors from Tamalpais High School under escort of Raymond Kemper, teacher.

3. Found that a 1933 ordinance prohibits Marin County handbill distribution and so advised Jock MacRea for the Festival Theater at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo.

4. Got a letter from P. J. Rowland as president of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. approving dismissal of the administrator, but adopted a resolution asking the number of paid-up members of the association and whether the letter resulted from a meeting attended by how many.

5. Joined with the assessor in asking a state time extension from July 17 to 24 for closing date on protests of Marin County assessments.

6. Postponed decision until July 3 on four bids for county corporation yard steel construction on East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley; EDCO Construction Co. of Albany being low bidder on Schedule A with a $14,727 bid, California Steel Buildings Co. of Oakland low on Schedule B with $16,212.

7. Granted Marin Municipal Water District a right-of-way for laying and maintaining pipes in the civic center.

8. On motion of Blair voted that the Mill Valley Record is to be Marin's official newspaper during July, August and September.

Felt Earthquake

At least one Marin resident felt the earthquake which jolted San Francisco Tuesday noon. Mrs. Thomas Dearborn of 11 Hillview Avenue, San Rafael, said she was sitting in the dining room about 11:30 a.m. when "all of a sudden the frigidaire shook, dishes started rattling and the cups began swinging." She said the tremor lasted only a few seconds.

Look Carefully For That Setting Trick

The best way to find the setting trick is to look in the right direction.

Opening lead — ♡ K

Put yourself in the West seat for the defense against four spades. You lead the king of hearts, and East signals encouragement with the eight.

You continue with a low heart, and East wins with the ace. East returns a heart to your queen, and you are now at the crossroads. Where do you find the setting trick?

Can your partner have the ace of diamonds? If so, South has driven the hand to game with the king-queen of diamonds and two side jacks. What's more, East would have cashed the ace of diamonds, if he had it, before leading the third heart.

ONLY ONE HOPE

If your partner doesn't have the ace of diamonds, he cannot have any high card that will normally take the setting trick. The only hope is that East has a trump that can be promoted to winning rank.

For this purpose you lead the last heart. Dummy must ruff with the jack, since otherwise East can ruff with the ten. Now dummy's ace and king will draw West's queen, but East's ten will eventually take the setting trick.

Don't make it a habit to lead a suit of which both dummy and declarer are void; such a play usually costs you a trick. Today's hand proves that there are exceptions to almost all rules of play.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ 10 6 2
♥ A 8 7
♦ 9 6 5 3
♣ 10 9 6

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. Avoid responding to partner's opening bid of one in a suit when you have only four points.

3 Lions Clubs Conduct Joint Installation

Three Lions Clubs of Marin County held joint installation recently at the Corte Madera Recreation Center and installed new officers for Corte Madera, Novato and San Rafael organizations. Will Taylor, district governor, conducted the installation.

Officers for 1961-62 terms in the three clubs follow:

Corte Madera: Tim Murray, president; John McDermott, Andy Vireno and Robert Vogel as first, second and third vice presidents; Edward Sabo, secretary; Beverly Sill, treasurer; Kenneth Hoag, tail twister; Jack Daulton, lion tamer.

Novato: Austin Ripley, president; Jack Benge, Paul Richards and Harold Walton, first, second and third vice presidents; Arthur Robertson, secretary; Victor Barossi, treasurer; Archie Sawyer, lion tamer; Don Davis, tail twister.

San Rafael: Burton Stutz, president; Leonard Phillips, Ernest Border and Kenneth McKenzie, first, second and third vice presidents; Robert Brusatori, secretary; Arthur Latno, treasurer; Glenn Sleezer, lion tamer; Lou Milani, tail twister.

Souvenir

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Librarian Marion Simmons recalls a small boy who returned some overdue books, with his past due notice and his fine in the other hand. After he'd paid the fine, he asked: "Please, can I have the letter back? It's only the second one I ever got."

Bad Times, Good Jokes

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP) — Business had been bad at a local movie theater. When a woman called to ask what time the feature started, the cashier jokingly asked, "What time can you be here?"

There Are Two Sides To 'Good' Economic Picture For Rest Of '61

NEW YORK (AP) — More jobs, higher take-home pay, plentiful bargains, better selections —these are the good things seen in store for you the rest of this year.

Bigger tax bills, costlier services, slightly higher interest rates, and lingering unemployment among the unskilled —these are the bad probabilities.

Both sets are short-term prospects. They are the guesses of the majority of the economic soothsayers, based on indications the economy will enjoy a healthy if quiet summer and move ahead steadily if slowly in the fall.

The experts divide sharply on the longer range outlook. Some see a big upsurge in economic growth, getting under way early next year. The contrary minded fear the current plans to stimulate such growth will bring either a feverish but short-lived boom or a creeping and debilitating inflation.

Let's look at the short term prospects.

Jobs — more but still not enough.

Increasing industrial output already means longer work weeks. And after a summer bobble for plant vacations, it should bring more jobs by fall. The service industries should absorb still more workers. But contraction in unskilled job opportunities is likely to continue for some time.

Incomes — a bit higher for many.

Wage-scale trends are still upward, with the business recovery encouraging union leaders to ask more and with the effectiveness of Washington's restraint pleas questionable. Corporation profits will still be pinched by rising costs, but dividend payments tend to hold up well. Rents are weakening in a few areas, but rising in others.

Money—still fairly easy.

The best bet is that the financial agencies will keep money and credit plentiful if the recovery is at a measured pace. Some relaxing of mortgage terms are in the cards, but other interest rates may stiffen as business picks up.

Prices—mark ups and mark downs fairly balanced.

The cost of living probably will rise, but with seasonal trends the main influence. In spite of production costs there is much price cutting now in industrial materials. And for consumers keen competition for sales is keeping bargains plentiful. So too is the spread of discount houses into new areas and under new sponsorship by older retailing forms.

Shortages—few if any.

Industry can produce more of almost anything, save its newest products, than Americans are currently prepared to buy. There are eager foreign suppliers looking for openings. Only an international flareup could change the general picture.

Army Helps Out With School Space

NEW MARKET, N.J. (AP)—The Army has lent a helping hand to Piscataway Township's educational system.

The Army's installation at Camp Kilmer has served as school for hundreds of township children since 1955, when an old USO building was reconstructed into a seven-room school.

"There's no question that we would have been forced on double sessions in the last few years if those buildings had not been available," says Dr. Theodore Schor, Piscataway superintendent of schools.

More Trees Added On Fourth Street

Gene F. O'Connor, chairman of the San Rafael Beautiful Committee, announced Tuesday night 15 more potted Ficus Nitida trees would be placed today along Fourth Street.

The trees will be placed by the Public Works Dept. and Park Dept. in front of the Masonic Building, the Water Co., the PayLess Drug Store and Sarrae's women's shop.

The committee previously arranged for the placing of 30 trees along the city's main stem in various locations between A and Lootens Streets.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
(advertisement)
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF MARIN COUNTY will receive sealed bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation, and services, for the Furnishing and installation of Movable Partitions in the Marin County Administration Building, now under construction on a portion of the Marin County Civic Center Site, on Highway 101 and North San Pedro Road in Marin County.
Each bid shall be in accordance with Drawings, Specifications and Contract Documents for this work as prepared by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, on file at the office of the Department of Public Works, 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, California, or at the office of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, Aaron G. Green, A.I.A., Representative at 319 Grant Avenue, San Francisco, California, where copies may be examined or obtained. Bidders are responsible for obtaining a complete set of Documents covering the work upon which they will submit bids. A deposit of $25.00 will be required for each set of Plans and Specifications, said deposit refundable if copies are returned in good condition within five days after bid opening.
Bids shall be submitted upon proposal forms obtainable at the office of the Architect or at the Department of Public Works, and shall be accompanied by a certified or Cashier's check, or bid bond for ten per cent of the amount of bid, made payable to the Treasurer, County of Marin and shall be filed with the County Clerk of Marin County, Court House, San Rafael, California on or before the 10th day of July, 1961. Closing hour for receipt of bids will be 3:00 p.m. of that day in said County Court House.
A bond will be required of the successful bidder for faithful performance of the Contract in an amount equal to 100% of the Contract price and a labor and material bond in amount of 50% of the Contract price.
Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law thereto applicable, the Board of Supervisors has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which this work is to be performed, for crafts or type of workman or mechanic for this work. The prevailing rates so determined are as follows:

| Classification | Rate Per Hour |
|---|---|
| Carpenters | |
| Journeymen | $3.95 |
| Foremen | 4.45 |
| Painters | |
| Journeymen | 3.92 |

The prevailing rates so determined are based on an eight hour day unless otherwise stated. Existing agreements between the Building Trades and the Construction Industry groups relative to overtime, holidays, and other special provisions shall be recognized. It shall be mandatory upon the Contractor and upon any Sub-Contractors under him, to pay not less than the said specific rates to all laborers, workmen, or mechanics employed by them in execution of this Contract. Any employee classification employed in this work, not listed above, shall be paid no less than general prevailing wages as approved by the Board of Supervisors.
The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin reserves the right to reject any and all bids and/or waive any irregularities in any bid received. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the opening date set.

'59 VAUXHALL
STATION WAGON
$795
If you're looking for a small station wagon for the family—this is the cleanest one in town. It's a one-owner wagon that a lady bought new locally in '59 and just traded for a new '61 Buick. It's only got 15,000 original miles. Sand beige with full red leather interior. Radio and heater. Not a mark of wear on this wagon.

'But It Never Happens To Me'

TORRINGTON, Wyo. (AP) — W. R. McBrayer, a Torrington insurance man, sponsors a special feature on radio station KGOS.

Whenever the town fire alarm sounds, the station announcer gives listeners the location of the fire and follows it up with "the next time the siren sounds it may be your property."

The alarm sounded recently. When firemen arrived at the scene they found McBrayer surveying nearly $600 in damages done to his car when it caught fire.

A German chemist, Adreas Marggraf, proved in 1747 that beet root stored pure sucrose that could be crystallized.

Family Sues In Mixup Involving Stewardess' Death

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Philadelphia relatives of an airline stewardess killed in a car crash last Nov. 7 filed a $150,000 damage suit yesterday over a mixup in identifications which had led them for three days to believe she was alive.

The U.S. District Court suit of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Frost, their son, and daughter, named San Mateo County, its coroner and deputy coroner as defendants.

Father and son had sat for three days at a hospital beside the bedside of a heavily bandaged and unconscious patient before learning the injured stewardess was Mary Hawthorne. A body shipped east as Miss Hawthorne's turned out to be that of Joan Frost.

The suit, seeking damages for medical care and loss of earnings, charged the San Mateo County officials were "careless and negligent."

Gambling Out For Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Parents and parliamentarians have joined forces here against pinball parlors.

A new law has ordered the impounding of all mechanical gambling devices. Parliament acted after parents complained that Nafeh (pinball) and one-arm-bandits were claiming too much of their children's pocket money.

There is no law against betting on horses.

BULL SESSION — Discussing the subject they will cover on the "PM West" television program tomorrow night — bullfighting — are Barnaby Conrad of Belvedere (left) and Terrence O'Flaherty, host for the TV show which is seen at 12:15 a.m. on KPIX.

Bullfighting May Sicken Many, But If You're Interested . . .

Bullfighting is a spectacle that more frequently sickens than excites people of this country when they witness it. The sport, however, does have its afficionados in the U.S. And Barnaby Conrad of Belvedere is one of the best known. More than that, he's an ex-bullfighter himself, and the author of a book, "Matador," which has sold two and a half million copies.

Conrad will appear on "PM West" tomorrow night, 12:15 a.m., over KPIX, to discuss bullfighting with host Terrence O'Flaherty.

Of bullfighting, Conrad has said: "Sure it's cruel . . . life is cruel. But when we talk about the cruelty of sports of other countries, we should remember that there are more horses killed in steeplechasing each year than there are bulls killed in all countries put together."

And if you can stand the late hours, tonight's "PM West" should be interesting, too. The subject is jazz. And appearing will be one of the great jazz singers, Ernestine Anderson, and one of the most articulate authorities on this exciting music, columnist Ralph Gleason.

CREDIT THE "Robert Herridge Theater" series with coming up with some of TV's most original titles for its plays.

For instance tonight's production, to be seen at 8:30 on KQED, is: "The Early Morning of a Bartender's Waltz." It's an original television drama by S. Lee Pogostin.

The Herridge shows are invariably as fresh and original in their themes and dialogue as they are in their titles. The casts seldom include big names, but offer instead competent craftsmen superbly directed.

A NEW INTERVIEW series called "At the Source" bows in tonight at 10 o'clock on KPIX. The only noticeable change from the usual news-interview formula appears to be that the "At the Source" subjects will be quizzed "on-location" at the place they do their work.

Tonight's guest is Secretary of State Dean Rusk. And he will be interviewed by three CBS network correspondents in his office at the U.S. State Department Building.

ALSO RECOMMENDED for viewing:

Tonight, 10:30 o'clock on KGO, on the "Silents Please" series, Part One of the D. W. Griffith spectacular on the French Revolution, "Orphans of the Storm." Dorothy and Lillian Gish head the cast.

Tomorrow, 8:30 p.m. on KQED, pianist William Corbett Jones of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music faculty plays Schubert's "Sonata in B Flat, Op. Posth." and Brahms' "Rhapsody in E Flat, Op. 119" in a one-hour live "Summer Music Festival" recital from a Channel 9 studio.

The Orient Express was completed in 1888 after being delayed by a frontier war between Serbia and Bulgaria and a revolution in Eastern Rumelia.

EDWARD C. PINO
New Reed Superintendent

Reed Union District Has New Chief

Redd Union School District Tuesday night announced the selection of Edward C. Pino, 33, of Royal Oak, Mich., as the new superintendent of the district.

Pino will succeed, as of July 1, the position now held by Paul R. Stouffer, who earlier this year asked to be relieved of the responsibilities of the office as soon as a replacement could be found.

Pino's annual salary, under the contract approved by trustees, will be $15,000. Stouffer will remain as business manager.

BACKGROUND

The new superintendent has just completed his second year as assistant superintendent of the Lamphere School District in Madison Heights, Mich., near Detroit. His earlier experience includes teaching at various grade levels and service as superintendent of Air Force dependents schools in France and Japan.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Pino received his masters degree from George Washington University in 1953. He has done graduate work at Harvard and at the University of Maryland.

At last night's meeting, David B. Ring, acting chairman of the Reed trustees, stated that the board was "very impressed with the manner in which the screening committee performed its task. The four finalists interviewed by the board were all highly qualified men. We have unanimously selected Mr. Pino whom we believe will bring to the district the qualities of education leadership which we need if we are to continue to move toward our stated objective of becoming a superior school district."

SEARCH OVER

Selection of Pino culminates a screening committee's search since last August when Stouffer announced his intention to resign. The committee screened applicants from throughout the United States. The committee consisted of Dr. William R. Odell of the Stanford School of Education; Richard Foster, superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School in Daly City and a former acting superintendent of schools in Marin County; and Mrs. Florence E. Gantner, a teacher at Katharine Branson School and former resident of the district.

Pino and his wife, Joan, have two sons, Eric, 4, and Edward Jr., 2. Pino will appear at the trustees next meeting on July 11, Ring said.

This family is the victim of hot weather stalling—one of three infuriating troubles that can strike your car on sizzling days. Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend fights all three.

HAPPY JULY 4th?

Fight hot weather stalls with Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend. Famous 9-ingredient formula now adjusted for top performance when highways sizzle.

Summer heat can make some gasolines bubble. This can stall you dead. It can also cause hard starting and rough idling.

Read how Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend fights these heat wave problems. It just might save you a lot of trouble this weekend. You can get it at any Shell station on your route.

ENGINES, like people, can suffer from heat prostration. Especially in the kind of hot and heavy traffic you may face during the weekend ahead.

Here are three infuriating troubles that are caused by excessive heat—and what Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend does to fight them.

How Super Shell fights hot weather stalls

If your engine sputters and dies on a hot day, it may have an ailment called vapor lock. Hot weather can make certain gasolines start to boil right in the fuel line. They literally bubble. Vapor lock takes place when the bubbles choke off the fuel supply.

Shell scientists attack vapor lock by revising Super Shell's nine-ingredient formula in summer.

They reduce its volatility. This produces a Hot Weather Blend of Super Shell that's not likely to boil in your fuel line. It cuts the chances of hot weather stalling to a minimum.

How Super Shell fights hard starting

Here's what can happen when you try to re-start your car after a hot drive. With the fan stopped and the cooling system idle, intense heat under the hood can actually make gasoline percolate in some carburetors. Just like coffee in a pot.

The gasoline spills over, floods the engine—and makes starting difficult.

Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend is formulated to stand high temperatures without percolating. You get quick starts even after a long, hard, hot drive.

How Super Shell fights rough idling

The same trouble that causes summer starting difficulties can give your car the shakes every time you stop for a traffic light.

Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend attacks both problems the same way. Its formula is adjusted so that it's in no hurry to boil and bubble. Result: smooth idling in hot weather.

Shell Trouble-Shooter

Your Shell dealer will be glad to prepare your car for the rigors of summer driving. His trouble-shooting may save you hours of delay on the road. See him now.

And ask him to fill your tank with Super Shell's Hot Weather Blend. Then you'll really be set for top performance.

#1 is TCP* for power, mileage, and longer plug life.
#2 is "cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.
#3 is anti-knock mix to resist all kinds of knocks.
#4 is Alkylate to control "high-speed knock."
#5 is Butane for quick starts.
#6 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups.
#7 is an "anti-icer." (Added in cold weather.)
#8 is gum preventive to keep carburetors clean inside.
#9 is Platformate for extra mileage.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U. S. Patent 2889212.
